Social Buzz STEM For Kids:

The Business School Buzz Book Carolyn C. Wise, Stephanie Hauser, 2007 In this updated guide Vault publishes the entire surveys of current students and alumni at more than 100 top business schools Each 4 to 5 page entry is composed almost entirely of insider comments from students and alumni Each school profile features surveys of about 10 students or alumni These narratives provide applicants with detailed and balanced perspectives and insider information on admissions and employment prospects which is lacking in other business school guides

Making Sense of the Learning Turn Anders Örténblad, 2024-05-09 From learning toy and learning society to learning city and learning organization what is meant by learning The main focus of this volume is to increase our understanding of the learning turn referring in this book to the frequent occurrence and usage of terms in the last few decades where the word learning is the premodifier The authors also offer insights into the use of the word learning as a premodifier in the future and discuss what if anything may replace it such as knowledge as in knowledge management and smart as in smart city An extensive range of academic disciplines are covered including political science economics human geography philosophy linguistics higher education working life science management and organization and marketing While a single overall unified conclusion is not provided Making Sense of the Learning Turn presents a variety of voices and perspectives Some contributors are critical towards the learning turn explaining it in terms of fashion following manipulation and seduction Others interpret the learning turn more lightly or suggest a more collective form of learning as an alternative to the individualization of learning that some authors argue has been the case thus far
