The Educator's Handbook for Teaching With Primary Sources Scott M. Waring, 2023. Educators across subject areas are striving to integrate primary sources into their pedagogy and teaching. Yet despite their importance to authentic disciplined inquiry, the implementation of primary source activities in the pre K-12 classroom has been limited. This lack of utilization can largely be attributed to the perception that these activities are too complex to design, implement and grade. Many teachers also feel that primary source analysis and the construction of evidence based narratives is too difficult for students to complete in the traditional classroom. Waring argues that this is not the case and with this handbook provides teacher candidates and inservice teachers with detailed and specific perspectives, activities, approaches and resources to help them effectively and authentically use primary sources in their classrooms.

Book Features: Introduces teaching with primary sources including detailed examples of authentic and tested instructional ideas and approaches. Designed to meet the needs of classroom teachers and teacher candidates in social studies, English and language arts, mathematics, science and other fields. Offers dozens of primary sources and links to resources throughout the book. Aligns to national standards, frameworks and the C3 framework for social studies. Can be used to meet the needs of emerging English learners and students with special needs. Focuses on ways in which educators are utilizing a variety of emerging technologies to engage students in deeper and more authentic ways of learning. Contributors include Peter DeCraene, Lisa Fink, Eric J. Pyle, Stefanie R. Wager, Sarah Westbrook and Trena L. Wilkerson.

Which Proximity in Design Education? Rita Assoreira Almendra, 2025-01-30. This book explores various pedagogical viewpoints and dialectical positions within the field of design education and the concept of proximity it has established with industries and manufacturing. Which Proximity in Design Education frames a wide range of approaches in design studios on undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate levels and their capacity to render meaningful and novel attitudes and actions beyond the classroom. The urgent call for resilience in the way we lead our lives has brought our global boundaries and social tensions to the forefront of the conversation and there is a generation of students fully aware of our collective responsibility in this decisive decade. As such, educators need to rapidly adapt to new tools and ways of teaching design whilst also being challenged on how to educate the designer for the pressing tasks of the near future. It presents optimistic solutions for how education can support renovated mindsets and efforts towards common goals. This book contains distinct visions of the world and its problems relating to proximity in design education As such the chapters present diversified solutions to these issues which will be of interest to teachers and researchers working in design education

Startup Finance 2.0 Sam Ghosh, 2025-08-29 Traditional corporate financial theories and tools are based on matured companies with the assumption that the companies are going concerns Going Concern refers to the assumption that a company will continue to operate indefinitely with no intention or necessity of liquidation or cessation of operations in the foreseeable future The problem is that the Going Concern assumption does not hold for startups due to the inherent uncertainty associated with startups Traditional financial education and resources usually meant for analysts and accountants aren't ideal for entrepreneurs They focus on analyzing past data from established businesses not on making forward looking decisions in the uncertain and highly dynamic environment of startups Entrepreneurs also often struggle to prioritize the allocation of resources between seemingly urgent matters and matters that are important for the long term value of the startup Thus this book takes a value oriented approach to startup finance

The book is designed to build the financial intuition that an entrepreneur needs to prioritize matters vital for the long term value of the company raise capital and allocate capital for value maximization It also looks at finance from a value creation point of view and covers specific methods especially suited for startups from investment assessment to valuation to fundraising to managing day to day finances
