Non-pharmacological Therapies for Palliative Cancer Care William C.S. Cho,2013-01-30 Cancer is one of the leading killers in the world and the incidence is increasing but most cancer patients and cancer survivors suffer much from the disease and its conventional treatments side effects In the past clinical data showed that some complementary and alternative medicine CAM possessed anticancer abilities but some clinicians and scientists have queried about the scientific validity of CAM due to the lack of scientific evidence There is great demand in the knowledge gap to explore the scientific and evidence based knowledge of CAM in the anticancer field With this aim a book series is needed to structurally deliver the knowledge to readers Integrative therapies comprise a variety of non pharmacological interventions that assist in alleviating physical and psychological symptoms Apart from being a life threatening disease cancer and its therapy are usually associated with a significant deterioration in the quality of life There is growing evidence that non pharmacological therapies provide symptom and pain management in cancer palliation This volume is a specialised book presenting the research evidence relevant to the application of a range of commonly used non pharmacological interventions in supportive cancer care including massage acupressure Qigong yoga mind body therapy mindfulness based intervention and aromatherapy A number of scientific researches and clinical studies support that these therapies offer potential beneficial effects for cancer patients in terms of reducing pain anxiety and other symptoms Indeed non pharmacological therapies are increasingly gaining acceptance in the healthcare community as complementary to conventional cancer treatments Most of them are non invasive inexpensive and useful in improving quality of life and they may be accessed by patients themselves Meditation for Psychotherapists

Alexander H. Ross,2024-10-15 Meditation for Psychotherapists provides students and practitioners of psychotherapy with specific meditation techniques Chapters offer a comprehensive theoretical and practical approach as an adjunct to established professional development tools This is the first time specific bespoke meditation techniques have been connected to different therapeutic modalities building on the author s already published work The book is accompanied by a website with audio guided meditations and courses directed to an international audience across multiple psychotherapy models www.arosspsychotherapy.com/meditation Mindfulness-Related Treatments and Addiction Recovery

Marianne Marcus,Aleksandra Zgierska,2013-09-13 While mindfulness meditation has been used in clinical settings as an adjunctive treatment for substance use disorders for some time there has been limited empirical evidence to support this practice Mindfulness Related Treatments and Addiction Recovery bridges this gap by reporting the findings of studies in which mindfulness practice has been combined with other behavioural treatments and or adapted to meet the needs of a variety of client populations in recovery Therapies used as interventions in the described studies include Mindfulness Based Stress

Reduction MBSR Mindfulness Based Cognitive Therapy MBCT Dialectical Behavior Therapy DBT Acceptance and Commitment Therapy ACT Mindfulness Based Relapse Prevention MBRP and Mindfulness Based Therapeutic Community MBTC treatment The book offers a glimpse into the many ways in which mindfulness strategies have been applied to various facets of the recovery process including stress craving anxiety and other relapse related factors Preliminary evidence while not conclusive suggests that mindfulness based therapies are effective safe satisfying to clients and that an individual at home mindfulness practice can be potentially sustained over time beyond the intervention duration This book was originally published as a special issue of Substance Abuse
