and return to earlier forms of social life They acquire new capabilities which bring new satisfactions they could not have anticipated in the world that is gone In the post apocalyptic world they disentangle themselves from old ways of thinking and their misconceptions of human happiness In this way Payne argues post apocalyptic fiction is the pastoral of our time The individualism and small scale social relations of post apocalyptic fiction are not naive but instead the necessary ground for choosing the freedoms and capabilities readers would want to see preserved in any future collective that might emerge from them
