Suiting Themselves Suiting Themselves:

Suiting Themselves Sharon Beder, 2012 In this brilliantly researched expos communications Rottweiler Sharon Beder blasts open the backrooms and boardrooms to reveal how the international corporate elite dictate global politics for their own benefit Beder shows how they created business associations and think tanks in the 1970s to drive public policy forced the worldwide privatization and deregulation of public services in the 1980s and 1990s enabling a massive transfer of ownership and control over essential services and still not satisfied have worked relentlessly since the late 1990s to rewrite the very rules of the global economy to funnel wealth and power into their pockets Want a globalized and homogenized world of conflict poverty and massive environmental degradation run by a corporate oligarchy that wipes its feet on democracy Or a democratic world where poverty is history companies work for people and clean water is a right not a privilege you pay for Beder's message is clear it's your world and it's time to fight for it Exploratory Study of Man's Self Locomotion Capabilities with a Space Suit in Lunar Gravity Amos A. Hargrave John MITFORD (1st Baron Redesdale., afterwards John Freeman), 1847 Husbands, Wives, and Concubines Emlyn Eisenach, 2004-06-01 Emlyn Eisenach uses a wide range of sources including the richly detailed and previously unexplored records of nearly two hundred marriage related disputes from the bishop's court of Verona to illuminate family and social relations in early modern northern Italy Arguing against the common emphasis on the growth of law and government in this period her study emphasizes the fluidity of the principles that governed marriage and its dissolution and deepens our understanding of the patriarchal family and its complex relationship with gender and status during the sixteenth century Peopled by characters from across the social spectrum of the city of Verona and its contado Eisenach's study moves between stories about specific individuals serving girls seeking honorable marriage through the unlikely route of concubinage peasant men in search of independence from their fathers and aristocratic wives seeking revenge against adulterous husbands and broader analyses of social economic and geographical patterns of behavior She shows how the Veronese at all social levels attempted to better their familial and personal fortunes by creatively molding wedding rituals to fit their particular circumstances or engaging in the significant but until now little understood practices of concubinage clandestine marriage or informal marriage dissolution Eisenach also evaluates the first half century of religious reforms in Verona as the leading pre Tridentine bishop Gian Matteo Giberti and his successors challenged common practices and understandings in sermons treatises confessionals and court Emphasizing the limitations of what the religious authorities could impose on the people she explores how learned and popular notions of marriage family and gender shaped each other as they were put into action in the strategies of individual Veronese Cobbett's Parliamentary History of England, 1818 The Parliamentary History of England, from the Earliest Period to the Year 1803 William Cobbett, 1818 A Concordance to the Poems of Robert
