The Cambridge History Of French Literature:

The Cambridge History of French Literature William Burgwinkle, Nicholas Hammond, Emma Wilson, 2011-02-24 The most comprehensive history of literature written in French ever produced in English French Literature Alison Finch, 2010-07-19 The depth and range of this book are astonishing as it describes the cultural conditions out of which French literature has emerged as a vital component of Western civilization from the Middle Ages to the present day Informative and immensely readable it makes a compelling and humane case for the continued study of literature in a changing world Colin Davis Royal Holloway University of London Written with great panache this book locates French literature in the wider culture of the Western world Finch shows how from Marie de France to MC Solar literature in France has always intertwined with politics history geography money sex language gender class and race Women writers and the new Francophone literatures receive welcome recognition A remarkable achievement Michael Sheringham Oxford University Alison Finch's superbly written book brings the cultural dimension of French literature fully into focus While revealing how the agenda of literary study has changed she demonstrates that we can engage with the great canonical texts of French literature in new and exciting ways The book is to be commended for its clarity its shrewd analyses and its sheer readability Tim Unwin Bristol University This book is the first to offer a cultural history of French literature from its very beginnings analysing the relationship between French literature and France's evolving power structures from the Middle Ages through to the present day It shows the political connections between the elite literature of France and other aspects of its culture from racism misogyny tolerance and liberal reform to song street performance advertizing and cinema The nation's literature contributed to these and was shaped by them The book highlights the continuities and the unique fault lines in the society that over a millennium has produced French culture It looks at France's early and continuing struggle for a national identity through both its language and its literature and it shows that this struggle co exists with openness to other cultures and a bawdy or subtle rebelliousness against the Church and other forms of authority En route it takes in cuisine gardens and the French tradition in mathematics The survey provides an accessible approach to key issues in the history of French culture as well as a wide context for specialists The Cambridge History of the Novel in French Adam Watt, 2021-02-25 This History is the first in a century to trace the development and impact of the novel in French from its beginnings to the present Leading specialists explore how novelists writing in French have responded to the diverse personal economic socio political cultural artistic and environmental factors that shaped their worlds From the novel's medieval precursors to the impact of the internet the History provides fresh accounts of canonical and lesser known authors offering a global perspective beyond the national borders of the Hexagon to explore France's colonial past and its legacies Accessible chapters range widely including the French novel in Sub Saharan Africa data analysis of the novel system in the seventeenth century social critique in women's writing Sade's banned works and more Highlighting continuities and divergence between and within different periods this lively volume offers routes through a diverse literary landscape while encouraging comparison and connection making between writers works and historical periods

A Short History of French Literature Sarah Kay, Terence Cave, Malcolm Bowie, 2003 This book traces the history of French literature from its beginnings to the present Within its remarkably brief compass it offers a wide ranging personal and detailed though selective account of major writers and movements Developments in French literature are presented in an innovative way not as an even sequence of literary events but as a series of stories told at varying pace and with different kinds of focus Readers can thus take in the broad sweep of historical change grasp the main characteristics of major periods or enjoy a close appraisal of individual works and their contexts The book is written in an accessible and non technical style that will make it attractive both to students of French and to non specialist readers

The Cambridge Companion to Medieval French Literature Simon Gaunt, Sarah Kay, 2008-04-10 Medieval French literature encompasses 450 years of literary output in Old and Middle French mostly produced in Northern France and England These texts including courtly lyrics prose and verse romances dits amoureux and plays proved hugely influential for other European literary traditions in the medieval period and beyond This Companion offers a wide ranging and stimulating guide to literature composed in medieval French from its beginnings in the ninth century until the Renaissance The essays are grounded in detailed analysis of canonical texts and authors such as the Chanson de Roland the Roman de la Rose Villon's Testament Chrétien de Troyes Machaut Christine de Pisan and the Tristan romances Featuring a chronology and suggestions for further reading this is the ideal companion for students and scholars in other fields wishing to discover the riches of the French medieval tradition

A History of Modern French Literature Christopher Prendergast, 2025-06-17 An accessible and authoritative new history of French literature written by a highly distinguished transatlantic group of scholars This book provides an engaging accessible and exciting new history of French literature from the Renaissance through the twentieth century from Rabelais and Marguerite de Navarre to Samuel Beckett and Assia Djebar Christopher Prendergast one of today's most distinguished authorities on French literature has gathered a transatlantic group of more than thirty leading scholars who provide original essays on carefully selected writers works and topics that open a window onto key chapters of French literary history The book begins in the sixteenth century with the formation of a modern national literary consciousness and ends in the late twentieth century with the idea of the national coming increasingly into question as inherited meanings of French and Frenchness expand beyond the geographical limits of mainland France Provides an exciting new account of French literary history from the Renaissance to the end of the twentieth century Features more than thirty original essays on key writers works and topics written by a distinguished transatlantic group of scholars Includes an introduction and index The contributors include Etienne Beaulieu Christopher Braider Peter Brooks Mary Ann Caws David Coward Nicholas Cronk Edwin M Duval Mary Gallagher Raymond Geuss Timothy Hampton Nicholas Harrison Katherine Ibbett Michael Lucey Susan Maslan Eric M choulain Hassan Melehy Larry F Norman

Nicholas Paige Roger Pearson Christopher Prendergast Jean Michel Rabat Timothy J Reiss Sarah Rocheville Pierre Saint Amand Clive Scott Catriona Seth Judith Sribnai Joanna Stalnaker Aleksandar Stevi Kate E Tunstall Steven Ungar and Wes Williams The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 3, The Renaissance George Alexander Kennedy, Glyn P. Norton, 1989 This 1999 volume was the first to explore as part of an unbroken continuum the critical legacy both of the humanist rediscovery of ancient learning and of its neoclassical reformulation Focused on what is arguably the most complex phase in the transmission of the Western literary critical heritage the book encompasses those issues that helped shape the way European writers thought about literature from the late Middle Ages to the late seventeenth century These issues touched almost every facet of Western intellectual endeavour as well as the historical cultural social scientific and technological contexts in which that activity evolved From the interpretative reassessment of the major ancient poetic texts this volume addresses the emergence of the literary critic in Europe by exploring poetics prose fiction contexts of criticism neoclassicism and national developments Sixty one chapters by internationally respected scholars are supported by an introduction detailed bibliographies for further investigation and a full index The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature Roberto Gonzalez Echevarría, Enrique Pupo-Walker, 1996-09-13 Volume 2 of a comprehensive history of Latin American literature the only work of its kind Shaping Identity in Medieval French Literature Adrian P. Tudor, Kristin L. Burr, 2019-08-05 This collection of essays argues that literary identity can be created and re created adopted refused imposed and self imposed and that one may exist within a group while remaining foreign to it Contributors examine this theme through a wide range of lenses from marginal characters to gender to questions of voice and naming in works that span genres and historical periods Finding My Way Duncan Brown, 2023-12-01 This book reflects on South African literature from the perspective of 2020 It emerges from Duncan Brown s experiences of three decades of working in this field of writing and scholarship It is a personal intellectual exploration and an engagement with the institutional history of literary studies in South Africa and elsewhere Finding My Way also attempts to find more creative engaging and intriguing modes of writing about literature and the humanities universally It seeks to recover a sense of the imaginative the literary and the affective not only as things to value in the literary texts we read but also as ways of understanding and reading texts as ways of writing criticism of registering how books make us feel as well as how they make us think Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa
