

The Century: America's Time - Best Years (1946-1952) - Key

After the initial jubilation at the end of World War II, America faced severe domestic demographic problems and the international specter of communism and the Cold War. In response to the serious housing shortages exacerbated by the high marriage rates and subsequent baby boom of returning soldiers and the girls they left behind, the Truman administration created the GI Bill, which enabled veterans to secure low interest mortgages and college educations. But the domestic bliss of new homes and growing families could not alleviate the growing fears and hysteria of the new atomic age, and a demagogue from Wisconsin, Senator Joseph McCarthy, harnessed this hysteria for his personal political success. This episode covers some of the major events of the immediate post-war years such as the Korean War, McCarthyism, the Marshall Plan, the Berlin Airlift and the adjustment of returning soldiers.

5. What was the driving force behind the booming economy?

He sent a civil rights message to Congress, which was the first civil rights ever sent to Congress by any President. And he made the decision to order the desegregation of the Armed Forces and of the federal government.
9. Why is Jackie Robinson's MLB debut so significant in American history?

outstanding participants in Veblen's Century the pulsating vitality of Veblen himself is well captured Indeed a little bit of Veblen is encapsulated in and by his commentators Veblen's Century originated as a project initiated in 1974 by Professor Horowitz to reissue the entire corpus of Veblen's writings in new editions with introductions written expressly with this larger purpose of bringing the master of economic theory to the attention of a new generation That the project took more than a quarter century to complete is indicative of the care with which each new essay is crafted In addition with Transaction being identified as the home of Veblen books on him were offered to the firm for reissuing Thus the inclusion of contemporary masters who knew Veblen as well as those writing on specific texts enhance the volume Irving Louis Horowitz directed the Veblen Project since its beginnings He is Hannah Arendt Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Sociology and Political Science at Rutgers University He is editor of various festschriften including volumes in honor of C Wright Mills Abraham Edel and Eli Ginzberg His most recent work is Behemoth The Theory and History of Political Sociology
