The Christian Art Of Dying Learning From Jesus:

The Christian Art of Dying Allen Verhey, 2011-11-28 A renowned ethicist who himself faced death during a recent life threatening illness Allen Verhey in The Christian Art of Dying sets out to recapture dying from the medical world Seeking to counter the medicalization of death that is so prevalent today Verhey revisits the fifteenth century Ars Moriendi an illustrated spiritual self help manual on the art of dying Finding much wisdom in that little book but rejecting its Stoic and Platonic worldview Verhey uncovers in the biblical accounts of Jesus death a truly helpful paradigm for dying well and faithfully

You'll Be Changed Into Me Stuart Squires, 2024-02-10 In recent decades Catholic books on the Eucharist have often focused narrowly on the question of the nature or essence of the Eucharist Although the question of the nature of the Eucharist is undoubtedly important it unfortunately has overshadowed a question that is just as important if not more important what does the Eucharist do If Jesus body blood soul and divinity are truly present in the Eucharist as Catholics believe then we should not be surprised to learn that when Catholics receive the Eucharist they receive multiple effects or fruits You Will Be Changed Into Me introduces six of the most important fruits of the Eucharist It will explore how the Jesus Event is brought to the present through Eucharistic memory it will investigate how the Eucharist is the application of Christ's sacrificial offering on the cross it will demonstrate how the Eucharist radically conforms the communicant to the heart of Christ it will review the unity in the human family that is created by the Eucharist through union with Christ it will show how a Eucharistic life leads to a life of service it will explain the significance of the Eucharist for the journey beyond this life

Christian Dying George Kalantzis, Matthew Levering, 2018-07-24 We human beings are mortal Our lives in this world inevitably terminate in death This reality however need not cause us to despair since Jesus Christ has gone before us into the far country of death giving us hope that this defining feature of our earthly lives is not the end but instead is an entrance into Christ's presence and a path to the fullness of the Spirit's new creation in which God will be all in all Christian Dying Witnesses from the Tradition is a collection of essays containing reflections from Christian authors whether Catholic Orthodox or Protestant on the meaning and appropriation of Christian hope in the face of death in conversation with a number of great voices from the Christian tradition CONTRIBUTORS Michel Ren Barnes John C Cavadini Marc Cortez Brian E Daley S J Paul L Gavriluk Matthew Levering David Luy Mark McIntosh Gilbert Meilaender Cyril O Regan Marcus Plested Brent Waters

The Moral Life James F. Keenan, 2024-01-02 A profound inquiry into what prompts human beings to act morally Most foundational texts on theological ethics address either the person or society In The Moral Life James F Keenan SJ posits that these two are inextricably linked He presents eight stages of preparing for the moral life describing vulnerability as the foundation for contemporary ethics He understands vulnerability to be what establishes the human capacity for recognizing and responding to others rather than a compromised state of being Mutual recognition emerges as the first moral act of the vulnerable human He shows how conscience guides the activity of one who has first vulnerably recognized others The Moral Life offers scholars and students of Christian ethics a novel perspective on what we need to know not only to be and live morally but also to teach and share with others what they need to know Hearers and Doers Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2019-05-15 The foundation of discipleship is sound scriptural doctrine The value of sound doctrine is often misunderstood by the modern church While it can be dry and dull when it flows from the story of Scripture it can be full of life and love This kind of doctrine steeped in Scripture is critical for disciple making And it is often overlooked by modern pastors In Hearers and Doers Kevin Vanhoozer makes the case that pastors as pastor theologians ought to interpret Scripture theologically to articulate doctrine and help cultivate disciples scriptural doctrine is vital to the life of the church and local pastor theologians should be the ones delivering it to their communities With arresting prose and striking metaphors Vanhoozer addresses the most pressing problems in the modern church with one answer teach sound scriptural doctrine to make disciples Patience, Compassion, Hope, and the Christian Art of Dying Well Christopher P. Vogt, 2004 By mining the rich tradition of virtue ethics Christopher Vogt uses the virtues of patience compassion and hope as a framework for specifying the shape of a good death and for naming the practices Christians should develop to live well and die well Bringing together historical biblical and contemporary sources in Christian ethics Vogt provides a long overdue theological analysis of the ars moriendi or art of dying literature of four centuries ago Through a careful analysis of Luke's passion narrative Vogt uses Jesus as the primary model for being patient in the face of death and for dying well Living and Dying Well in Philippians Gregory E. Lamb, 2025-03-17 The Finality of the Gospel, 2022-06-13 In this volume leading systematic theologians and New Testament scholars working today undertake a fresh and constructive interdisciplinary engagement with key eschatological themes in Christian theology in close conversation with the work of Karl Barth Ranging from close exegetical studies of Barth's treatment of eschatological themes in his commentary on Romans or lectures on 1 Corinthians to examination of his mature dogmatic discussions of death and evil this volume offers a fascinating variety of insights into both Barth's theology and its legacy as well as the eschatological dimensions of the biblical witness and its salience for both the academy and church Contributors are John M G Barclay Douglas Campbell Christophe Chalamet Kaitlyn Dugan Nancy J Duff Susan Eastman Beverly Roberts Gaventa Grant Macaskill Kenneth Oakes Christoph Schwobel Christiane Tietz Philip G Ziegler One True Life Christopher Kevin Rowe, 2016-01-01 In this groundbreaking cross disciplinary work of philosophy and biblical studies New Testament scholar C Kevin Rowe explores the promise and problems inherent in engaging rival philosophical claims to what is true Juxtaposing the Roman Stoics Seneca Epictetus and Marcus Aurelius with the Christian saints Paul Luke and Justin Martyr and incorporating the contemporary views of Jeffrey Stout Alasdair McIntyre Charles Taylor Martha Nussbaum Pierre Hadot and others the author suggests that in a world of religious pluralism there is negligible gain in sampling from separate belief systems This thought provoking volume reconceives the relationship between ancient philosophy and emergent Christianity as a rivalry between strong traditions of life and offers powerful arguments for the exclusive commitment to a community of belief and a particular form of philosophical life as the path to existential truth Biblical Ethics in the 21st Century: Developments, Emerging Consensus, and Future Directions Lúcas Chan, SJ; foreword by James F. Keenan, SJ, 2013 Reviews and critiques the major attempts at biblical ethics over the past twenty years by both biblical theologians and theological ethicists focusing on New Testament ethics as an illustration
