Wagner and the Erotic Impulse Laurence Dreyfus, 2012-05-07 Though his image is tarnished today by unrepentant anti-Semitism Richard Wagner 1813-1883 was better known in the nineteenth century for his provocative musical eroticism In this illuminating study of the composer and his works Laurence Dreyfus shows how Wagner's obsession with sexuality prefigured the composition of operas such as Tannhäuser Die Walküre Tristan und Isolde and Parsifal Daring to represent erotic stimulation passionate ecstasy and the torment of sexual desire Wagner sparked intense reactions from figures like Baudelaire Clara Schumann Nietzsche and Nordau whose verbal tributes and censures disclose what was transmitted when music represented sex Wagner himself saw the cultivation of an erotic high style as central to his art especially after devising an anti-philosophical response to Schopenhauer's metaphysics of sexual love A reluctant eroticist Wagner masked his personal compulsion to cross dress in pink satin and drench himself in rose perfumes while simultaneously incorporating his silk fetish and love of floral scents into his librettos His affection for dominant females and surprising regard for homosexual love likewise enable some striking portraits in his operas In the end Wagner's achievement was to have fashioned an oeuvre which explored his sexual yearnings as much as it conveyed as never before how music could act on erotic impulse

Tourists from Algol Tom Henighan, 1983-01-01 Short stories about exploring the unknown Tom Henighan's numerous works of fiction nonfiction and poetry include The Maclean's Companion to Canadian Arts and Culture The Well of Time and the YA novel Viking Quest 2001 He lives in Ottawa and teaches at Carleton University Greek Comedy and the Discourse of Genres Emmanuela Bakola, Lucia Prauscello, Mario Tel-, 2013-04-18 Explores comedy's voracious and multifarious dialogue with a large spectrum of literary sub literary and paraliterary traditions surrounding and shaping it Mountain flora of Java, 2nd edition Steenis, 2021-11-29 The mountain flora of Java constitutes a unique natural heritage of Indonesia and indeed of the whole world The most informative and most beautifully illustrated book ever written on this rich resource is doubtlessly The Mountain Flora of Java written by the late renowned Dutch biologist C G G J van Steenis with unsurpassed paint drawings of 456 flowering plant species by Amir Hamzah and Moehamad Toha The first edition from 1972 was sold out fairly soon Brill is therefore proud to publish this edition of this seminal work at this point in time There are three very good reasons to reprint the Mountain Flora both in English and in the Indonesian language First of all there is the importance of this flora for biodiversity conservation and sustainable use of the vulnerable mountain ecosystems of Java Secondly the unique style and quality of the 456 plant portraits by Amir Hamzah and Moehamad Toha Thirdly there is the science explaining and interpreting the rich botanical diversity in the mountains of Java Although written over 40 years ago Van Steenis approach to the study of botany can still serve as an example and inspiration for young botanists conservationists and policy makers Greek Literature and the Ideal Alexander Kirichenko, 2022-08-18 Greek Literature and the Ideal contends that the development of Greek literature was motivated by the need to endow political geography with a sense of purposeful structure Alexander Kirichenko argues that Greek literature was a crucial factor in the cultural production of space and Greek geography a crucial factor in the production of literary meaning The book focuses on the idealizing images that Greek literature created of three spatial patterns of power distribution a decentralized network of aristocratically governed communities Archaic Greece a democratic city controlling an empire Classical Athens and a microcosm of Greek culture located on foreign soil ruled by quasi divine royals and populated by immigrants Ptolemaic Alexandria Kirichenko draws connections between the formation of these idealizing images and the emergence of such literary modes of meaning making as the authoritative communication of the truth the dialogic encouragement to search for the truth on one s own and the abandonment of transcendental goals for the sake of cultural memory and or aesthetic pleasure Readings of such canonical Greek authors as Homer Hesiod the tragedians Thucydides Plato Callimachus and Theocritus show that the pragmatics of Greek literature the sum total of the ideological cognitive and emotional effects that it seeks to produce is in essence always a pragmatics of space there is a strong correlation between the historically conditioned patterns of political geography and the changing mechanisms whereby Greek literature enabled its recipients to make sense of their world
