Reformed theologian and biblical scholar James B Jordan has produced a unique body of work His electrifying commentaries and essays on Scripture along with his penetrating writings on Trinitarian theology liturgics music and culture have inspired a growing number of pastors and theologians In this Festschrift Jordan s friends and associates celebrate his contributions by applying his methods and insights to a range of biblical theological liturgical and cultural questions The Glory of Kings aims to bring Jordan s work to the attention of a wider audience and to introduce the work of a scholar that R R Reno has called one of the most important Christian intellectuals of our day The Heart: The Key to Everything in the Christian Life

Tim Rowe, 2016-03-10 We need to recover a truth that has been all but lost in modern day Christianity It has been buried for too long and it is too valuable to be forgotten This life changing truth is that the heart is the key to everything in the Christian life The heart is the wellspring of all our actions emotions motives and character Everything we are everything we say and everything we do flows directly from the heart In The Heart The Key to Everything in the Christian Life believers will discover how the heart is central to spiritual growth and how it will help us better reflect the image of Christ in a fallen world The heart is the key to our service and obedience to the Father The heart is the key to the purity and depth of our worship praise and love of God It is time the Christian church once again teaches a proper understanding of the heart so that we can fully embrace and manifest the life of Christ within us Studies in the Book of Psalms William Swan Plumer, 1866 The Psalms are wonderful They have been read repeated chanted sung studied wept over rejoiced in expounded loved and praised by God s people for thousands of years The most ancient of these productions is now 1866 three thousand three hundred and twenty six years old The least ancient of them is two thousand four hundred and fifty three years old The difference in date between the most ancient and the most modern of them is eight hundred and seventy three years They were all written in Asia so that we in this Western world can have no national pride respecting them Yet pious people here and all over the earth have found and can find no compositions more suitable for delineating their devout emotions and for expressing their pious sensibilities than those of inspired Psalmists If to any man these songs are unsavory the reason is found in the blindness and depravity of the human heart Hengstenberg The Psalms are expressions of holy feeling which can be understood by those only who have become alive to such feeling Other things being equal he who has the most heavenly mind will be the most successful student of the Psalms Introduction The Message of the Psalter David C.
