Halpern,2015-10-05 This volume originally published in 1987 fills a gap in a neglected area Looking at the entire war in the Meditterrean the volume examines the war from the viewpoint of all the important participants making full use of archives and manuscript collections in Britain France Italy Germany Austria and the United States A fascinating mosaic of campaigns emerges in the Adriatic Straits of Otranto and the Eastern Aegean The German assistance to the tribes of Libya the threat that Germany would get her hands on the Russian Black Sea Fleet and use it in the Mediterranean and the appearance and influence of the Americans in 1918 all took place against a background of rivalry between the Allies which frustrated the appointment of Jellicoe in 1918 as supreme command at sea in a role similar to that of Foch on land

Soldiers, Scouts and Spies Cliff Simons, 2019-10-10 A fascinating and detailed study of the major campaigns on the New Zealand Wars As interest in the New Zealand Wars grows Soldiers Scouts and Spies offers a unique insight into the major campaigns fought between 1845 and 1864 by British troops their militia and Maori allies and Maori iwi and coalitions It was a time of rapid technological change Maori were quick to adopt western weaponry and evolve their tactics and even political structures as they looked for ways to confront the might of the Imperial war machine And Britain despite being a military and economic super power was challenged by a capable enemy in a difficult environment This detailed examination of the Wars from a military perspective focuses on the period of relatively conventional warfare before the increasingly irregular fighting of the late 1860s It explains how and where the battles were fought and their outcomes Importantly it also analyses the intelligence gathering skills and processes of both British and Maori forces as each sought to understand and overcome their enemy

World War II at Sea Craig L. Symonds, 2018 Craig L. Symonds World War II at Sea offers a definitive naval history of the Second World War presenting the chronology of the naval war from The London Conference of 1930 to the surrender in Tokyo Bay in 1945 on a global scale for the first time

Prologue, 1990 King's Navy David Kohnen, 2024-11-28 An authoritative account of the rise and fall of American sea power between 1897 and 1947 and the definitive biography of Fleet Admiral Ernest J King Between 1897 and 1945 the US Navy rose to lofty heights with huge manpower a lavish roster of ships and a hard earned reputation for professionalism and potency By 1947 in the wake of the Second World War the Navy although still powerful had been significantly scaled down much of the senior leadership retired and the wartime edge gradually dulled This period from 1897 to 1947 was witnessed and to a large degree driven and determined by two admirals Ernest J King and King's mentor William S Sims These admirals were empowered by two giants of American political and military history Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Franklin D Roosevelt Through the lives of King Sims and the Roosevelts Naval War College historian David Kohnen has crafted a sweeping history of American sea power from 1897 to 1947 This epic work was made possible through 20 years of research and writing By accessing undiscovered and recently declassified source material along with the full cooperation of the King and Sims families the author has been able to tell new stories and draw fresh conclusions making this volume a must have for scholars of naval history
