The Collected Works Of Billy The Kid:

The Collected Works of Billy the Kid Michael Ondaatje, 2025-03-06 Booker prize winning author Michael Ondaatje invites you on a brutal beautiful journey into the American West At twenty one years old Billy the Kid has killed a man for each year he s been alive Roaming the blasted planes of the Wild West he moves between friends foes and lovers fighting to keep just one step ahead of the law Yet in this twisted wasteland a country of mad dogs of sweat and gore and blinding heat the sheriffs play dirty too Melding prose poetry imagined interviews and ephemeral photography Ondaatje weaves together a lyrical reinterpretation of Billy s short infamous existence forming a portrait of a young man and a young country borne out of violence threaded through with disaster yet rich in wonder Ondaatje s language is clean and energetic with the pop of bullets This is literature art Annie Dillard Ondaatje s eye for detail is wonderful and he uses it poetically with superb restraint Larry McMurtry

"Trading Magic for Fact," Fact for Magic Marc Colavincenzo, 2021-10-18 This study brings together three major areas of interest history postmodern fiction and myth Whereas neither history and postmodern fiction nor history and myth are strangers to one another postmodernism and myth are odd bedfellows For many critics postmodern thought with its resistance to metanarratives stands in direct and deliberate contrast to myth with its apparent tendency to explain the world by means of neat complete narratives There is a strain of postmodern Canadian historical fiction in which myth actually forms a complement not only to postmodernism s suspicion of master narratives but also to its privileging of those marginal and at times ignored areas of history The fourteen works of Canadian fiction considered demonstrate a doubled impulse which at first glance seems contradictory On the one hand they go about demythologizing in the Barthesian sense various elements of historical discourse exposing its authority as not simply a natural given but as a construct This includes the fact that the view of history portrayed in the fiction has been either underrepresented or suppressed by official historiography On the other hand the history is then re mythologized in that it becomes part of a pre existing myth its mythic elements are foregrounded myth and magic are woven into the narrative or it is portrayed as extraordinary in some way The result is an empowering of these histories for the future they are made larger than life and unforgettable
