The Christian Imagination Theology And The Origins Of Race:

The Christian Imagination Willie James Jennings, 2010-05-25 Why has Christianity a religion premised upon neighborly love failed in its attempts to heal social divisions In this ambitious and wide ranging work Willie James Jennings delves deep into the late medieval soil in which the modern Christian imagination grew to reveal how Christianity's highly refined process of socialization has inadvertently created and maintained segregated societies A probing study of the cultural fragmentation social spatial and racial that took root in the Western mind this book shows how Christianity has consistently forged Christian nations rather than encouraging genuine communion between disparate groups and individuals Weaving together the stories of Zurara the royal chronicler of Prince Henry the Jesuit theologian Jose de Acosta the famed Anglican Bishop John William Colenso and the former slave writer Olaudah Equiano Jennings narrates a tale of loss forgetfulness and missed opportunities for the transformation of Christian communities Touching on issues of slavery geography Native American history Jewish Christian relations literacy and translation he brilliantly exposes how the loss of land and the supersessionist ideas behind the Christian missionary movement are both deeply implicated in the invention of race Using his bold creative and courageous critique to imagine a truly cosmopolitan citizenship that transcends geopolitical nationalist ethnic and racial boundaries Jennings charts with great vision new ways of imagining ourselves our communities and the landscapes we inhabit

Barth and Ecotheology Adrian Langdon, 2025-03-31 Barth and Ecotheology offers a critical and constructive reading of Karl Barth's theology in the context of the Anthropocene It reflects on how a contemporary doctrine of creation must be broad enough to address issues such as climate change colonialism and racism sexism as well as integrating modern science Such a theology would resist the human domination of nature and the various forms of displacement occurring in modernity With Barth the author contends that a theology of creation grounded in the self revelation of God in Jesus Christ is the best place to rethink what it means to be human and to exist within the community of creation Nevertheless if we are to affirm the livingness of the world creaturely differences and a central place for land and place then critical additions to Barth are needed To accomplish this the book provides constructive reinterpretations of Barth's theological method doctrine of God creation by the Word and Spirit anthropology and reconciliation What emerges is a vision of the triune God of love as the source and ground of all that is Along the way Barth is brought into dialogue with ecotheology as well as theologians such as Wolfhart Pannenberg Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Bruce McCormack The volume will be of particular interest to theologians focused on the doctrine of creation ecotheology and Barth studies

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Race in American History Kathryn Gin Lum, Paul Harvey, 2018 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Race in American History brings together a number of established scholars as well as younger scholars on the rise to provide a scholarly overview for those interested in the role of religion and race in American history Thirty four scholars from the fields of History Religious Studies Sociology Anthropology and more investigate the complex interdependencies of religion and race from pre

Columbian origins to the present The volume addresses the religious experience social realities theologies and sociologies of racialized groups in American religious history as well as the ways that religious myths institutions and practices contributed to their racialization Part One begins with a broad introductory survey outlining some of the major terms and explaining the intersections of race and religions in various traditions and cultures across time Part Two provides chronologically arranged accounts of specific historical periods that follow a narrative of religion and race through four plus centuries Taken together The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Race in American History provides a reliable scholarly text and resource to summarize and guide work in this subject and to help make sense of contemporary issues and dilemmas Rethinking Paul Edwin

Chr. van Driel, Edwin Christiaan Van Driel, 2021-05-06 This book offers theological reading of contemporary Pauline scholarship exploring how it deepens broadens enriches and challenges traditional Protestant paradigms Theology and Race Andrew Prevot, 2018-07-03 This study develops a Christian theological response to the problems of race and anti black racism in conversation with black theology and womanist theology It provides a detailed introduction to multiple voices developments and tensions in these two theological traditions over the last half century It offers an overview of James Cone s arguments and their reception It considers turns toward pragmatism and genealogy in black religious scholarship focusing on Cornel West Peter Paris Dwight Hopkins Victor Anderson Anthony Pinn Bryan Massingale J Kameron Carter and Willie Jennings It analyzes womanist theological treatments of intersectionality narrative and embodiment through Jacquelyn Grant Katie Cannon Delores Williams Emilie Townes Karen Baker Fletcher Kelly Brown Douglas Diana Hayes and M Shawn Copeland Finally it suggests some open questions related to hybridity sexuality and ecology Ultimately it argues that the credibility of Christian theological witness depends significantly on the quality of Christian theology s response to anti black racism The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G.
