The City And The Moving Image Urban Projections:

The City and the Moving Image R. Koeck, L. Roberts, 2015-12-30 This edited collection explores the relationship between urban space architecture and the moving image Drawing on interdisciplinary approaches to film and moving image practices the book explores the recent developments in research on film and urban landscapes pointing towards new theoretical and methodological frameworks for discussion

Locating the Moving Image Julia Hallam, Les Roberts, 2021-12-22 Essays exploring the methodologies used by film scholars to develop a spatial history of the moving image Leading scholars in the interdisciplinary field of geo spatial visual studies examine the social experience of cinema and the different ways in which film production developed as a commercial enterprise as a leisure activity and as modes of expression and communication Their research charts new pathways in mapping the relationship between film production and local film practices theatrical exhibition circuits and cinema going creating new forms of spatial anthropology Topics include cinematic practices in rural and urban communities development of cinema by amateur filmmakers and use of GIS in mapping the spatial development of film production and cinema going as social practices Introduces some of the concrete ways practical mapping and GIS technologies help elaborate historical film projects The scope of many of these projects is breathtaking in scale Others embrace ethnographic methods that tell poignant individual stories Still others deftly merge qualitative and quantitative approaches As a whole the volume brings together disparate fields of study in interesting ways James Craine California State University Northridge This collection breaks new ground for cinema history Hallam and Roberts have gathered some of the foremost scholars who are mapping spatial histories of the moving image and the geographies of film production distribution and consumption Introducing new interdisciplinary methods and asking new questions Locating the Moving Image takes film studies into new territory beyond the boundaries of the text and its interpretation towards an understanding of the relationship between culture spatiality and place Richard Maltby Matthew Flinders Distinguished Professor of Screen Studies Flinders University

Film, Mobility and Urban Space Les Roberts, 2012-02-21 Drawing on multi disciplinary debates surrounding the cultural production of place space and memory in the post industrial city this study explores the role of moving images in representations and perceptions of everyday urban landscapes It uses a unique spatial database of over 1700 archive films of Liverpool from 1897 to the present day

Film, Mobility and Urban Space Les Roberts, 2012-01-01 Reevaluating the significance of location in contemporary film practice and urban cultural theory Film Mobility and Urban Space explores the role of moving images in representations and perceptions of everyday urban landscapes Les Roberts draws on over 1 700 films of Liverpool from 1897 to the present and combines critical spatial analysis archival research and qualitative methods to navigate the city s cinematic geographies as mapped across a broad spectrum of film genres including amateur film travelogues newsreels promotional films documentaries and features

Film and Urban Space Geraldine Pratt, 2014-06-23 Identifies and analyses the major debates about the crucial historical relationship between film and the city to consider existing and future possibilities

Cine-scapes Richard Koeck, 2013 Cine scapes ignites new ways of seeing thinking and debating the nature of architecture and urban spaces Drawing on the author's extensive knowledge it offers insight into architecture and urban debates through the eyes of a practitioner working in the fields of film and architectural design emphasizes how filmic cinematic tendencies take place or find their way into urban practices can be used as a tool for educators students and practitioners in architecture and urban design to communicate and discuss design issues with regard to contemporary architecture and cities Nordic Noir, Adaptation, Appropriation Linda Badley, Andrew Nestingen, Jaakko

Seppälä, 2020-05-06 This book argues that adaptation is an underrecognized yet constitutive element of Nordic noir In so doing it reframes the prevailing critical view Now celebrated for its global sweep Nordic noir is equally a transmedial phenomenon Nordic Noir Adaptation Appropriation deploys the tools of current adaptation studies to undertake a wide ranging transcultural intermedial exploration adding an important new layer to the rich scholarship that has arisen around Nordic noir in recent years Electronic Visualisation in Arts and Culture Jonathan P. Bowen, Suzanne Keene, Kia

Ng, 2013-09-07 Presenting the latest technological developments in arts and culture this volume demonstrates the advantages of a union between art and science Electronic Visualisation in Arts and Culture is presented in five parts Imaging and Culture New Art Practice Seeing Motion Interaction and Interfaces Visualising Heritage Electronic Visualisation in Arts and Culture explores a variety of new theory and technologies including devices and techniques for motion capture for music and performance advanced photographic techniques computer generated images derived from different sources game engine software airflow to capture the motions of bird flight and low altitude imagery from airborne devices The international authors of this book are practising experts from universities art practices and organisations research centres and independent research They describe electronic visualisation used for such diverse aspects of culture as airborne imagery computer generated art based on the autoimmune system motion capture for music and for sign language the visualisation of time and the long term preservation of these materials Selected from the EVA London conferences from 2009 2012 held in association with the Computer Arts Society of the British Computer Society the authors have reviewed extended and fully updated their work for this state of the art volume Locating Nordic Noir Kim Toft Hansen, Anne Marit Waade, 2017-10-14

This book is a comprehensive study of Nordic Noir television drama from the 1990s until today The authors introduce the history of contemporary Nordic Noir from the perspective of place production and location studies The chapters include readings of well known television crime dramas such as Beck The Killing Trapped and The Bridge as well as a range of other important Nordic Noir cases The authors position the development of Nordic Noir in the global market for popular television drama and place the international attention towards Nordic crime dramas within regional development of drama production in Sweden Denmark Norway and Iceland Consequently Nordic Noir is read as both a transnational financial and creative phenomenon and as a local possibility for community building Offering a comprehensible scholarly and methodologically original approach to the popularity of Nordic television crime dramas this volume is aimed at readers with an interest in crime drama as well as scholars and students of television drama Soho on Screen Jingan Young, 2022-05-13 Despite Soho's rich cultural history there remains an absence of work on the depiction of the popular neighbourhood in film Soho on Screen provides one of the first studies of Soho within post war British cinema Drawing upon historical cultural and urban studies of the area this book explores twelve films and theatrically released documentaries from a filmography of over one hundred Soho set productions While predominantly focusing on low budget exploitation films which are exemplars of British and international filmmaking Young also offers new readings of star and director biographies from Laurence Harvey to Emeric Pressburger and in so doing enlivens discussion on filmmaking in a time and place of intense social transformation technological innovation and growing permissiveness
