Advanced Research Methods in the Built Environment Andrew Knight,Les Ruddock,2009-03-16 This book provides a bridge between the introductory research methods books and the discipline specific higher level texts Its unique feature is the coverage of the detailed process of research rather than the findings of research projects Chapter authors have been carefully selected by their expertise discipline and location to give an eclectic range of perspectives Particular care has been taken to balance positivist with interpretivist approaches throughout The authors focus is on the practical consequences of research philosophies strategies and techniques by using their own research and by evaluating the work of others Advanced Research Methods in the Built Environment addresses common topics raised by postgraduate level researchers rather than dealing with all aspects of the research process Issues covered range from the practicalities of producing a journal article to the role of theory in research The material brought together here provides a valuable resource for the training and development of doctoral and young researchers and will contribute to a new sense of shared methodological understanding across built environment research Student Research and Report Writing Gabe T. Wang,Keumjae Park,2016-01-26 This is an invaluable concise all in one guide for carrying out student research and writing a paper adaptable to course use and suitable for use by students independently it successfully guides students along every step of the way Allows students to better manage their research projects Exercises and worksheets break down the research process into small steps and walk students through each stage of the research project Offers real world and lively examples that are attractive and relevant to students Based on twenty years of experience in teaching research techniques to students in a way that avoids the methodology overkill from encyclopaedic and intimidating textbooks Accompanying website includes powerpoint lecture
