Reading Bestsellers Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2023-04-27 Readers are essential agents in the production of bestsellers but bestsellers are not essential to readers leisure pursuits The starting point in this Element is readers opinions about and their uses of bestselling fiction in English Readers relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture Based on three years of original research 2019 2021 including a quantitative survey with readers interviews with social media influencers and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make choosing connecting and responding in a transmedia era where on and offline media practices co exist The contemporary multimodal reader or the MMR3 they argue illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture reliance on trusted others and an ethic of responsiveness

Ethnic Studies and Youth Literature Marilisa Jiménez García, Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez, 2025-07-01 Brings together scholars and practitioners to present an ethnic studies framework for studying and teaching youth literature For decades youth literature has been reckoning with its role in systemic racism and oppression In this landmark edited volume Marilisa Jim nez Garc a and Sonia Alejandra Rodr guez assemble a cadre of well known women of color scholars and practitioners to make a case for ethnic studies as a path for pursuing racial justice in the field Ethnic studies they argue demands that we go beyond seeing race ethnicity culture and diversity as questions of identity and difference Instead it shows us how marginalized positionalities create epistemologies that shape our understanding of age craft genre and knowledge production Multidisciplinary and intersectional in its approach Ethnic Studies and Youth Literature analyzes US imperialism through the lens of youth literature and vice versa shedding light on the roots of our current culture wars and curriculum battles

Digital Social Reading Federico Píanzola, 2025-01-21 How digital social reading apps are powerfully changing and nurturing the way we read Conventional wisdom would have us believe that digital technology is a threat to reading but in Digital Social Reading Federico Píanzola argues that reading socially through digital media can help people grow a passion for reading and in some cases even enhance text comprehension Digital social reading DSR is a term that encompasses a wide variety of practices related to the activity of reading and using digital technologies and platforms websites social media mobile apps to share thoughts and impressions about books with others This book is the first systematization of DSR practices drawing on case studies from Wattpad AO3 and Goodreads on a worldwide scale Using a combination of qualitative and computational methods Pianzola offers fresh insight into the reading experience on the scale of big data He discusses the impact of digital technology on reading skills and shows that a change of methodological perspective is necessary to understand the positive potential of DSR for promoting reading more broadly He argues that it is not just the medium that changes but also the context and the attitudes of readers He also asserts that grassroots media and open bottom up communities are crucial to the success of many reading practices today especially with young audiences
