The Ritual Process Structure And Anti Structure:

The Ritual Process Victor W. Turner, 2011-12-31 In The Ritual Process Structure and Anti Structure Victor Turner examines rituals of the Ndembu in Zambia and develops his now famous concept of Communitas. He characterizes it as an absolute inter human relation beyond any form of structure. The Ritual Process has acquired the status of a small classic since these lectures were first published in 1969. Turner demonstrates how the analysis of ritual behavior and symbolism may be used as a key to understanding social structure and processes. He extends Van Gennep's notion of the liminal phase of rites of passage to a more general level and applies it to gain understanding of a wide range of social phenomena. Once thought to be the vestigial organs of social conservatism, rituals are now seen as arenas in which social change may emerge and be absorbed into social practice. As Roger Abrahams writes in his foreword to the revised edition, Turner argued from specific field data. His special eloquence resided in his ability to lay open a sub-Saharan African system of belief and practice in terms that took the reader beyond the exotic features of the group among whom he carried out his fieldwork, translating his experience into the terms of contemporary Western perceptions. Reflecting Turner's range of intellectual interests, the book emerged as exceptional and eccentric in many ways yet it achieved its place within the intellectual world because it so successfully synthesized continental theory with the practices of ethnographic reports.

The Ritual Process Victor Witter Turner, 1966 The Ritual Process Victor Witter Turner, 1977 The Ritual Process Victor Turner, 1974 The ritual process Victor W. Turner, 1970 Culture and Society Jeffrey C. Alexander, Steven Seidman, 1990-08-31 Brings together the major statements by the leading contemporary scholars of cultural analysis on the relationship between culture and society Liturgical Music as Ritual Symbol Judith Marie Kubicki,1999 In this book Sister Kubicki uses Jacques Berthier's Taize music to explore the nature of liturgical music as ritual symbol She carries out a hermeneutical analysis of Berthier's chants and examines biographical and historical data related to the creator's of Taize music and the founding of the Taize community The author draws on five areas of study to interpret the Taize chants as ritual symbol symbol theory semiotics theologies of symbol ritual theory and performative language theory The final chapter explores potential ecclesial meanings which may be mediated in the Taize liturgy and the role of Berthier's chants in mediating that meaning The study concludes that it is music's symbolic property that enables it to be both ministerial and integral to the liturgy As symbolic activity music making evokes participation negotiates relationships and enables the assembly to orient themselves and to find their identity and place within their world Furthermore music making provides the illocutionary force to do something in the act of singing Thus it is that as part of a complexus of ritual symbols music interacts with other symbols in mediating the liturgy's meaning

Architecture, Ritual and Cosmology in China Xuemei Li,2023-05-31 Drawing on the author's extensive fieldwork in the Dong areas in southwest China this book presents a detailed picture of the Dong's buildings and techniques with new insights into the Dong's cosmology and rituals of everyday life meshed with the architecture and the symbolic meanings It examines how the buildings and techniques of the Dong are ordered and influenced by the local culture and context The timber bridges and drum towers are the Dong's most prominent architectural monuments Usually built elaborately with multiple roofs these bridges and drum towers were designed and maintained by the local carpenters who also built the village suspended houses in an oral tradition carried down from father to son or to apprentice They were funded entirely by the local people and the bridges tend to be built in places without great pressure of traffic or another bridge already existing close by Why does such great expense go into the Dong's buildings with elaboration How were they built And what do they mean to their users and builders This book is an anthropological study on the Dong's architecture and technique and it aims to contribute a discourse on the interdisciplinary research area It is suitable for graduate and postgraduate readers

Liminality and Critical Event Studies Ian R. Lamond,Jonathan Moss,2020-03-28 This book explores and challenges the concept and experience of liminality as applied to critical perspectives in the study of events It will be of interest to researchers in event studies social and discursive psychology cultural and political sociology and social movement studies In addition it will provide interested general readers with new ways of thinking and reflecting on events Contributing authors undertake a discussion of the borders boundaries and areas of contestation between the established social anthropological concept of liminality and the emerging field of critical event studies By drawing these two perspectives closer together the collection considers tensions and resonances between them and uses those connections to enhance our understanding of both cultural and sporting events and offer fresh insight into events of activism protest and dissent
