Ensian ,1986 Cammy Sitting Shiva Cary Gitter,2025-08-26 This stirring debut novel is an unflinching darkly funny look at loss family and coming home perfect for fans of This Is Where I Leave You and Competitive Grieving When Cy Adler dies it s a shock to everyone especially his daughter Cammy Almost thirty slightly aimless and stuck in a basement apartment in Queens she s forced to return to River Hill her one square mile New Jersey hometown to sit shiva Cammy s fraught relationship with her mother Beth has never been easy And now with her beloved father gone she would rather be anywhere but back in her childhood room in a house filled with guests noshing on snacks and offering their condolences So Cammy does whatever she can to make it through seven turbulent days of mourning Amid getting stoned reconnecting with her best friend and her high school crush evading the rabbi and spending a debauched night in Atlantic City Cammy must reckon with her roots with the place she fled for the glamour of New York where she thought she belonged But is she really any better off than those she left behind While navigating the swirl of emotions that accompany grief Cammy also uncovers hidden truths about her father which lead her to doubt how well she knew the man she adored Then again does she even know herself Fueled by wry lively prose Cammy Sitting Shiva is a deeply relatable fish out of water story grappling with how it feels to be adrift and to find that a hard trip home may be what it takes to anchor you
