

A historical mapmaking scene. A large, aged map of the United States is spread out on a wooden table. The map shows the outlines of the states, with a specific area in the upper left corner highlighted and labeled "St. Louis" and "ILLINOIS LOW COUNTRY". To the left of the map, a large, open compass is visible. In the background, a rolled-up map is partially unrolled, and several glass bottles, some containing liquids, are scattered on the table. The overall atmosphere is one of historical exploration and cartography.
