1. Consider alternative titles for Chopin's novel. Comment on each alternative title in terms of the novel's design, themes, and development of the central character(s).
2. Discuss Kate Chopin as a writer of local color fiction. To what extent does she appeal to a reader's natural interest in an aspect of regional society and life with which few had personal experience?
3. Edna Pontellier is caught in the contradictions between the way others see her and the way she sees herself. Identify several moments in which this becomes apparent, and show Edna's growing awareness of the contradiction.
4. Count, characterize, and analyze the numerous women of color in The Awakening. What does their presence and their treatment in the novel suggest about Edna's (and Chopin's) attitudes toward human development for nonwhite and poor women?

7. What is the symbolic meaning of Edna's first successful attempt to swim?
8. Early in The Awakening, the narrator remarks that Léonce thinks of Edna as "the sole object of his existence." What evidence does the novel provide to support this declaration?
9. How does the text use clothing and garments (or the lack thereof) to portray Edna's rebellion against Victorian norms?
10. Of the many awakenings Edna undergoes in the novel, which are most important to her progress? Which may be considered "rude" or unexpected awakenings?
11. Explore the full implications of the various images of birds in the novel. How do the different species of birds mentioned—parrots, mockingbirds, pigeons—symbolize different ideas?
12. Throughout the novel, Edna feels caught between the way others see her and the way she sees herself. Identify several moments in which this struggle is apparent. How does the text portray Edna's growing awareness of these contradicting views?
13. Some critics view Edna's suicide at the end of the novel as a failure to complete her escape from convention—an inability to defy society once stripped of the motivation of a man by her side. Others view her suicide as a final awakening, a decision to
