comprehensive survey of contemporary children's literature Children's Books and Their Creators garnered unanimous praise from librarians, educators, and specialists interested in the world of writing for children. Now The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators assembles the best of that volume in one handy, affordable reference geared specifically to parents, educators, and students. This new volume introduces readers to the wealth of children's literature by focusing on the essentials: the best books for children, the ones that inform, impress, and most important, excite young readers. Updated to include newcomers such as J. K. Rowling and Lemony Snicket and to cover the very latest on publishing and educational trends, this edition features more than 475 entries on the best-loved children's authors and illustrators, numerous essays on social and historical issues, thirty personal glimpses into craft by well-known writers, illustrators, and critics, and invaluable reading lists by category. The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators summarizes the canon of contemporary children's literature in a practical guide essential for anyone choosing a book for or working with children. Children's Books in Print, 1993

A Parent/Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance Bob Blumenthal, 2005

How do you teach children to value peace and appreciate diversity? One way is to provide them with books with themes that promote these ideas. The Parent/Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance offers readers a wide variety of award-winning titles along with annotations and grade-level recommendations. The book is divided into the following sections: Preschool, grade three, Grades 4-6, Middle school, and High school. Each section has over 100 listings. Topics include civil rights, the Holocaust, slavery, Native Americans, bullying, war, child abuse, bigotry, cooperation, acceptance, apartheid, family relationships, Arab-Israeli conflict, controlling anger, the Civil War, the Vietnam War, WWII, gays and lesbians, and other social issues. Many of these books are the recipients of the following awards and honors: Newbery Award, School Library Journal starred review, Caldecott Award, Boston Globe Horn Book Award, American Library Association Notable Book, Jane Addams Children's Book Award, American Bookseller Pick of the List, Kirkus Reviews starred review, Publishers Weekly starred review, Booklist starred review, Coretta Scott King Award, VOYA Top Picks, National Book Award, and the Michael L. Printz Award. This guide is an excellent resource for parents who would like their children to become peace-loving, accepting adults. Teachers who are looking for books to supplement their curriculum will find the suggested titles to be among the best-written works in the designated areas. For example, one would be hard-pressed to find a better-written book on the Holocaust for middle and high school students than I Have Lived One Thousand Years. The author has done a great service by providing parents and teachers with a list of books that cannot be found anywhere else.

Children's Literature for All: God's Children Virginia Thomas, Betty Davis Miller, 1986-01-01

The themes, words, and concepts in children's literature speak to the whole Christian community. Virginia Thomas and Betty Miller have examined children's literature and designed an extensive annotated list of children's stories, poems, folk tales, and fiction that express faith, belief, theology, and Christian principles.
