Morgan, 1912 Canadian Silver Fox & Fur , 1948 Roland Gissing Maxwell Foran, Nonie Houlton, Roland Gissing, 1988 The book begins with a description of the impression Canada made on Gissing upon his arrival in this country in 1913 at the age of 18 Gissing wanted to be a cowboy He travelled from Alberta to California and back on horseback sketching and painting as he went Examples of this early work appear in the book Gissing began selling his work and supporting himself solely by painting The author discusses Gissing s technique as his style began to change and how the artist s frame of mind was reflected in his work There is a good representation of the work of this period in the book The book concludes with a discussion of Gissing s love of steam locomotives and some details about his time spent building these scale trains Finally a sampling of paintings of the drastically different seascapes and badlands he was doing in the few years before his death concludes the pictorial record of Gissing s life and works Treasures of the National Gallery of Canada National Gallery of Canada. Ottawa, National Gallery of Canada, Musée des beaux-arts du Canada (Ottawa, Ont.), David Franklin, 2003-01-01 This handsomely produced volume featuring 128 full page color illustrations showcases a wide ranging selection of the most outstanding works from Canada's largest art museum. Each of the pieces chosen for inclusion is introduced by a curatorial specialist who sets it in its historical context and comments on its meaning and its place in the artist's oeuvre. Pride of place is given to the Gallery's unparalleled holdings in Canadian art, but European art, paintings, sculptures, prints, and drawings is equally well represented. Masterworks from the Inuit art collection are also included, as well as examples from the Gallery's small but distinguished Asian collection. In recent decades, photographs have become an increasingly important part of the Gallery's collecting mandate, both through its own collection and that of its affiliate, the Canadian Museum of Contemporary Photography, and this emphasis too is amply reflected here.
