Hunch Berlage Institute, 2002-09 Contemporary Gothic and Horror Film Keith McDonald, Wayne Johnson, 2021-06-15 This book looks at contemporary Gothic cinema within a transnational approach. With a focus on the aesthetic and philosophical roots which lie at the heart of the Gothic, the study invokes its literary as well as filmic forebears by exploring how these styles informed strands of the modern filmic Gothic: the ghost narrative, folk horror, the vampire movie, cosmic horror, and finally the zombie film. In recent years, the concept of transnationalism has transcended its original boundaries, perhaps excessively, in the minds of some. Originally defined in the wake of the rise of globalisation in the 1990s as a way to study cinema beyond national boundaries, where the look and the story of a film reflected the input of more than one nation or region or culture, it was considered too confining to study national cinemas in an age of internationalization, witnessing the fusions of cultures and post-colonialism, exile, and diasporas. The concept allows us to appreciate the broader range of forces from a wider international perspective, while at the same time also engaging with concepts of nationalism, identity, and an acknowledgement of cinema itself.

Dark Assemblages Kay Pritchett,2015-10-22 This book examines strategies of transformation becomings image making and the phantasmagoric that figure in four stories and a novel by Gothic fiction writer Pilar Pedraza Spain 1951 While critics have long associated the Bildungsroman with Gothic fiction this study takes a close look at the developmental process itself the means by which a protagonist young or old might transcend a deprived status to achieve a complete sense of self Pedraza's works imply that regardless of the path followed a character's ability to think differently is crucial to progress The fixed image representative of an inflexible socially determined mindset arises as an obstacle to maturation In Das de perros for example a triangular arrangement of coins in a cigar box elucidates the connection between individual lives and the social order or assemblage Literary texts such as this one serve as collective assemblages of enunciation capable of exposing fixed images as powerful instruments of control Tristes Ayes del guila Mejicana discovers fixed images among the icons of Colonial Spain's exequias reales used in this case to territorialize the evolving identity of indigenous peoples The territory that Pedraza's fiction best illuminates is in reality the image When images remain fixed or territorialized they uncannily infect the assemblages over which they exert influence Placing emphasis on images that impact women Pedraza in Anfiteatro for example deconstructs cat woman which albeit a potentially subversive image in its early manifestations eventually ceases to empower the feminine lashing it rather to a burdensome stereotype Territorialized the feminine must then break free from the image in order to discover representations more capable of illuminating present day challenges The phrase dark assemblages drawn from Deleuze and Guattari's A Thousand Plateaus gestures toward societal stagnation as a decisive factor in individual evolvment Gothic fiction represents an uneven landscape in that it tenders the possibility of a social critique yet equally well lends itself to the exclusion of specific identities and practices that society brands as anomalous Pedraza's Gothic fiction is indeed subversive in that it offers readers original perceptions of modern day people and the assemblages dark or otherwise to which they belong Encyclopedia of Gothic Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2014-05-14 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of authors associated with Gothic literature The Supernatural Media Virus Rahel Sixta Schmitz, 2021-07-02 Since the 1990s the virus and the network metaphors have become increasingly popular finding application in a broad range of everyday discourses academic disciplines and fiction genres In this book Rahel Sixta Schmitz defines and discusses a trope recurring in Gothic fiction the supernatural media virus This trope comprises the confluence of the virus the network and a deep underlying media anxiety This study shows how Gothic narratives such as House of Leaves or The Ring feature the supernatural media virus to negotiate as well as actively shape imaginations of the network society and the dangers of a globalized technologized world Twenty-First Century Fiction S. Adiseshiah, R. Hildyard, 2015-12-04 This lively new volume of essays examines what happens now in 21st century fiction Fresh theoretical approaches to writers such as Salman Rushdie David Peace Margaret Atwood and Hilary Mantel and identifications of 21st century themes tropes and styles combine to produce a timely critical intervention into genuinely contemporary fiction
