

Dear social worker

*Dear social worker, I see you
For all the hours you work at night
The moments when darkness wins over light
Little moments of joy and moments of pain
The exhaustion you feel with the news of more blame
Dear social worker, I see you*

*Dear social worker, I see you
For all the tears that haven't been shed
The moments of worry sat in your head
Lunch at your desk and dinners gone cold
To-do lists in tatters when crisis unfolds
Dear social worker, I see you*

*Dear social worker, I see you
For choices made standing up for rights
Protecting those who cannot fight
All the parts that you love and the parts you hate
I see you each day in your invisible cape
Dear social worker, I see you*
