| 1. Why were dogs such as Buck in demand?                                                                               | They found gold in the Yukon Territory and needed dogs for dog sledding.                                                                                                                                               |
| 2. What breed of dog is Buck?                                                                                          | St. Bernard and Scottish Shepherd                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 3. What is the setting for this story?                                                                                 | The story starts out in Santa Clara Valley California and moves to Alaska or the Yukon Territory.                                                                                                                      |
| 4. Why was Buck at a disadvantage first in dealing with Manuel and later with the other men who were transporting him? | Buck trusted Manuel and let Manuel lead him away. The other men had the rope around his neck.                                                                                                                          |
| 5. Was their method of dog-breaking the most effective way to train a dog? Why/Why Not?                                | Yes, for that situation because the dogs were not going to be pets, they had a job to do and would be workers.No, because it was cruel, and we know today that there are other ways to effectively train dogs. |
| 6. The "Law of Club" was Buck's introduction to his future. What did he learn from this experience?                    | Buck learned that the man with the club was the law giver a master to be obeyed.                                                                                                                                       |
| 7. Why did Buck respect Perrault and Francois?                                                                         | Buck respected Francois and Perrault because they were fair at dispensing justice and taking care of the dogs.                                                                                                         |
| Chapter 2                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 8. How did this new setting differ from Judge Miller's home?                                                           | The new setting of Alaska and the Yukon Territory was much more primitive and brutal. Survival became the most important thing.                                                                                        |
| 9. What did Buck learn while watching his first dog fight?                                                             | Buck learned the "Law of Fang" by watching Curly die. This means that once you go down in a fight you never get up again.                                                                                              |
