

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly gain access to rockets that were better. They would also have delivery of the atomic bombs directly to the U.S.	They might develop better in case of an emergency, but they didn't know if anyone thought, planned, or even needed all of them. (Soviet leaders felt.)
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really.	Some people in the U.S. were not enthusiastic and also disagreed.
4. Would the U.S. believe what the Soviets said about rockets and satellites?	Yes, the government had no doubts. It was a common strategy.	The American public was skeptical and would not take as much notice as the Soviets.

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop building new weapons.

What would be the main reason for this?

It might be that the weapons were really bad.

It would be easier. The government did not really want them.

It was possible that the Soviets were not yet ready to do this.
