Gaming Democracy Adrienne L. Massanari, 2024-10-29 How play and gaming culture have mainstreamed far right ideology through social media platforms From Gamergate to the ongoing Big Lie the far right has gone mainstream In Gaming Democracy Adrienne Massanari tracks the flames of toxicity found in the far right and alt right movements as they increasingly take up oxygen in American and global society In this pathbreaking contribution to the fields of internet studies game studies and gender studies Massanari argues that Silicon Valley's emphasis on meritocracy and free speech absolutism has driven this rightward slide These ideologies have been coded into social media spaces that implicitly silence marginalized communities and subject them to rampant abuse by groups that have learned to game the ecology of platforms algorithms and attention economies While populist movements are not new phenomena such as QAnon parental rights activism and COVID denialism are uniquely of the internet with supporters demonstrating both technical acumen and an ability to use memes and play as a way of both building community and fomenting dissent Massanari explores the ways that the far right uses memetic humor and geek masculinity as tools both to create a sense of community within these leaderless groups and to obfuscate their intentions Using the lens of play and game studies as well as the concept of metagaming Gaming Democracy is a novel contribution to our understanding of online platforms and far right political activism

The Internet Is for Cats

Jessica Maddox, 2022-10-14 LOL cats Grumpy Cat Dog rating Twitter Pet Instagram accounts It's generally understood the internet is for pictures of cute cats and dogs and otters and pandas But what motivates people to make and share these images and how do they relate to other online social practices The Internet is for Cats examines how animal images are employed to create a lighter more playful mood uniting users within online spaces that can otherwise easily become fractious and toxic Placing today's pet videos photos and memes within a longer history of mediated animal images communication scholar Jessica Maddox also considers the factors that make them unique She explores the roles that animals play within online economies of cuteness and attention as well as the ways that animal memes and videos respond to common experiences of life under neoliberalism Conducting a rich digital ethnography Maddox combines observations and textual analysis with extensive interviews of the people who create post and share animal media including TikTok influencers seeking to make their pets famous activists tweeting about wildlife conservation and Redditors upvoting every cute cat photo The Internet is for Cats will leave you with a new appreciation for the human social practices behind the animal images you encounter online
