Filterworld Kyle Chayka, 2024-01-23 The story told here is instrumental to your own Jared Lanier Timely erudite important Ayad Akhtar What happens when our cultural and artistic lives are dictated to us by an algorithm What does it mean when shareability supersedes innovation How can we make a choice when the options have been so carefully arranged for us From coffee shops to city grids to TikTok feeds and Netflix homepages the world over algorithmic recommendations prescribe our experiences This network of mathematically determined choices the Filterworld has taken over almost unnoticed as we've grown accustomed to an insipid new normal But to have our tastes behaviours and emotions governed by computers calls the very notion of free will into question Internationally recognized journalist and New Yorker staff writer Kyle Chayka journeys through this ever tightening web woven by algorithms He explores how online and offline spaces alike have been engineered for seamless consumption How the lowest common denominator is promoted at the expense of the complex diverse or challenging How users of technology contend with data driven equations that promise to anticipate their desires but often get them wrong How the Filterworld is determining the very shape of culture itself Chayka skilfully and compellingly traces this creeping machine guided curation that influences not just what culture we consume but what culture is produced In doing so he attempts to answer to the most urgent question currently facing us is personal freedom ever again possible on the Internet Filterworld is a fascinating history of the rise of the algorithm and an important investigation into where it could take us next if we let it

The Recipe for Happiness Jane Lovering, 2023-06-09 Beautifully written and both heartbreaking and heartwarming Jessica Redland When Seren's brother Andrew signs her up to Yorkshire Dating only for them to recommend that she gets a life before they find her a match Seren has to admit that they may have a point She loves her job cooking at an elder day centre and her little flat but it's fair to say her life is a little short of hobbies and friends Since she was young Seren has felt safer close to home but now she's a thirty something divorcee it's time for a change Change arrives in the shape of alarmingly clever collie Kez who Seren offers to take in temporarily and kind but mysterious new colleague Ned But as Ned and Kez tempt Seren out of her shell it means facing her fears And when Andrew finally reveals the secrets of their childhood Seren's need for safety suddenly makes sense A problem shared is a problem halved and with friends by her side Seren might be able to get a life that she loves at last A charming read from bestselling author Jane Lovering perfect for fans of Jessica Redland Beth Moran and Jo Barlett Praise for Jane Lovering A funny warm hearted read filled with characters you'll love Matt Dunn A heart warming entertaining and uplifting book about the importance of human connection self acceptance and making the most of any opportunities that come your way I absolutely loved it and could not fault it Reader Review I am a big fan of Jane Lovering's books She has a real knack for creating great characters and writing the perfect blend of romance and humour often with some more serious issues included Her books will make you smile for sure but are also often rather emotional Reader Review It wouldn't be a book by Jane Lovering without that great balance between the ever present humour the set pieces and the wonderful one liners and the sensitively handled issues and emotional moments Reader Review A compulsively readable highly recommended book Reader Review
