Myth Retelling Novel Stories:

Myth in the Modern Novel Liisa Steinby, 2023-03-20 Myth in the Modern Novel Imagining the Absolute posits a twofold thesis First although Modernity is regarded as an era dominated by science and rational thought it has in fact not relinquished the hold of myth a more primitive form of thought which is difficult to reconcile with modern rationality Second some of the most important statements as to the reconcilability of myth and Modernity are found in the work of certain prominent novelists This book offers a close examination of the work of eleven writers from the late eighteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first representing German French American Czech and Swedish literature The analyses of individual novels reveal a variety of intriguing views of myth in Modernity and offer an insight into the modernizing transformations myth has undergone when applied in the modern novel The study shows the presence of the subconscious the mythic layer in modern western culture and how this has been dealt with in novelistic literature Myth and Fairy Tale in Contemporary

Fiction Alexandra Cheira, 2023-03-28 This volume provides more sustained critical attention on the use of myth and fairy tales in contemporary fiction both stand alone tales and those which are embedded in the wider frame of a novel or novella In this light the book examines contemporary retellings of myths and fairy tales in a productive dialogue with tradition as an extended appreciation of this productive creative and theoretical dialogue The individual chapters evince a robust variety of conceptions and approaches all thoroughly observant of the nature and workings of the relationship between story and genre and theoretically informed by innovative critical approaches Hence the volume demonstrates the undeniable importance of myth and fairy tales in contemporary fiction suggesting questions for future consideration and hopefully pointing towards new texts and new critical inquiries Fantasy Fiction Frances Sinclair, 2008 Handbook of fantasy fiction for teachers librarians parents and guardians and children themselves in which to find many titles of fantasy fiction that they like or may be tempted to read Includes groups such as classic fantasy comic fantasy Arthurian dark fantasy animals and dragons

Retelling Stories, Framing Culture John Stephens, Robyn McCallum, 2013-01-11 What happens to traditional stories when they are retold in another time and cultural context and for a different audience This first of its kind study discusses Bible stories classical myths heroic legends Arthurian romances Robin Hood lore folk tales oriental tales and other stories derived from European cultures One chapter is devoted to various retellings of classics from Shakespeare to Wind in the Willows The authors offer a general theory of what motivates the retelling of stories and how stories express the aspirations of a society An important function of stories is to introduce children to a cultural heritage and to transmit a body of shared allusions and experiences that expresses a society's central values and assumptions However the cultural heritage may be modified through a pervasive tendency of retellings to produce socially conservative outcomes because of ethnocentric androcentric and class based assumptions in the source stories that persist into retellings Therefore some stories such as classical myths are particularly resistant to feminist reinterpretations for example while other types such as folktales are more malleable In examining such possibilities the book evaluates the processes of interpretation apparent in retellings Index included Stories of the embedded and embodied Self Tillmann Ziegert, 2021-11-08 Think about your life as a bookshelf The author invites you to sit down with him and pull out the various stories that make up your life Examples are the Book of Love or Birth occupation and travel but also hidden away the Book of Death You will go on a journey with the author to explore the various aspects of story telling relating to your life and the world The book explores how narration is interwoven into our world The level of the self is explored and a model of the embodied and embedded Self is proposed and discussed Positive illusions are key in keeping us going via narration The concept of the other is examined What is special about a family and what type of stories are told The family portrait as frozen time The other is often perceived as evil such as witches the political other or outsiders How do we use the other to shape stories about the self and groups we belong to Contemporary issues are investigated for stories such as racism capitalism democracy or conspiracy theories Which aspects are true and where does story telling start Does liquid power indicate a constant circulation of elites or are we getting closer to a truly democratic society To understand the present we need to revisit the past The author takes you back far back to the exit from the existential cave What traits emerged during evolution that are still playing out today in shaping our view of the world Is inequality an economical problem or a psychological viewpoint or is this question wrong We will look at how humans emerged and question the simplistic view that it was an increase in cognition or language acquisition Is this not another story told by scientists Could there be a more violent and dark side to human nature that lurks underneath the surface If we look at contemporary events it often appears that way On the journey you will encounter various thinkers and philosophers such as Friedrich Nietzsche Michel Foucault Norbert Elias Stephen Pinker Martin Heidegger and Judith Shklar There will be a movie night with The Sopranos The Wire and Breaking Bad Make sure you have the popcorn ready Detective novels and serial killer dramas will be explored to look at our most cherished heroes Is the detective just a modern day angel Why do the good guys always win in the end The book ends with a consolidated system of thought a Gedankensystem Disagree or agree but you are invited to propose your own and join the discussion Ariadne Jennifer Saint, 2021-03-30 The mesmerising retelling from the woman at the heart of one of Ancient Greece's most famous myths I absolutely adored this book and am encouraging everyone I know to buy a copy READER REVIEW The last few pages will easily become tear soaked I loved every minute of this book READER REVIEW A lyrical insightful re telling Daily Mail If you like Madeline Miller's Circe and Song of Achilles you will eat up Ariadne Saint makes it a page turner Glamour Exquisitely written and exceptionally moving this is a mythical retelling to savour Elodie Harper author of THE WOLF DEN ARIADNE gives voice to the misused Princess of Crete who betrayed her father to save Theseus from the Minotaur Relevant and revelatory Stylist Ariadne Princess of Crete and daughter of the fearsome King Minos grows up hearing stories of gods and heroes But beneath the golden palace something else stirs the hoofbeats and bellows echoing from the Labyrinth below Every year its captive the Minotaur Ariadne's brother

Religion and Science Fiction An Introduction guides students into deeper understanding of how religion and science fiction engage often overlapping questions This textbook introduces key ideas of religious studies through critical consideration of print and visual media that fall within the general category of science fiction The goal throughout is to help students move beyond simply identifying points of interrelation between religious studies and forms of what is often called more broadly speculative fiction to considering how the studied texts open new ways of thinking about human and nonhuman experience taken to be religious With discussion questions lists of key terms extensive additional resources and suggestions for projects and essay questions this book is a foundational text for students and instructors of religion and science fiction

Multidisciplinary Research Area in Arts, Science & Commerce (Volume-3) Chief Editor- Biplab Auddya, Editor- Nazia Qureshi, Dr. Ratnaprava Parija, Dr. R. Senthamizh Veena, Dr. C. Salma, Milinkumar Maru, Mr Romero D'Souza,2025-06-25 Hungarian Perspectives on the Western Canon László Bengi,Gábor Mezei,Ernő Kulcsár Szabó,2017-05-11 In this collection Hungarian literature is read together with canonical works of the Western literary tradition The book studies the distinction between major and minor literatures showing that such parallel readings may highlight previously unknown components of the literary tradition The book does not hold traditional comparative methods

based on verifiable mediations or transactions between national philologies and national literary narratives to be the exclusive standard of interpretation readings can concentrate on common surfaces and textual events instead This is what is meant by post comparative perspectives a term to indicate that the conditions of a comparative reading never precede the reading itself On this basis the present volume points at several possibilities of how a common ground between texts can be created especially because the chapters within it perform parallel readings in highly different ways

Rescuing Women from American Mythology Michael A. Solis, 2021-03-17 This book explores American mythology through the lens of comic books and superheroes specifically exploring the subject from an historical perspective in order to capture the origins of sexism and misogyny as found in the comic book stories that have shaped so many young people and their attitudes It provides a detailed analysis of America's inextricable relationship with sexist institutions specific historical events and cultural attitudes all of which are captured by and perpetuated in comic books TV film and advertising The implicit argument this book makes is that sexism and misogyny are not the product of nefarious individuals with overt agendas instead sexism and misogyny are products of our mythology and the associated archetypal components that shape a fabricated design of the world a design shaped by men and unwittingly agreed to by women thus perpetuating a male dominated mythological religious and historical social structure

Technologies of Memory in the Arts L. Plate, A. Smelik, 2009-05-14 In this collection of essays a range of scholars from different disciplines look through the prism of technology at the much debated notion of cultural memory analysing how the past is shaped or unsettled by cultural texts including visual art literature cinema photographs and souvenirs

Exploding the Western Sara L. Spurgeon, 2005-03-01 The frontier and Western expansionism are so quintessentially a part of American history that the literature of the West and Southwest is in some senses the least regional and the most national literature of all The frontier the place where cultures meet and rewrite themselves upon each other's texts continues to energize writers whose fiction evokes, destroys and rebuilds the myth in ways that attract popular audiences and critics alike. Sara L. Spurgeon focuses on three writers whose works not only exemplify the kind of engagement with the theme of the frontier that modern authors make but also show the range of cultural voices that are present in Southwestern literature: Cormac McCarthy, Leslie Marmon Silko, and Ana Castillo. Her central purposes are to consider how the differing versions of the Western mythic tales are being recast in a globalized world and to examine the ways in which they challenge and accommodate increasingly fluid and even dangerous racial, cultural, and international borders. In Spurgeon's analysis, the spaces in which the works of these three writers collide offer some sharply differentiated visions but also create new and unsuspected forms providing the most startling insights. Sometimes beautiful, sometimes tragic, the new myths are the expressions of the larger culture from which they spring, both a projection onto a troubled and troubling past and an insistent prophetic vision of a shared future.

Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, James A. Rycik, 2019-08-28 Now in its second edition, this book explores a great variety of genres and formats of young adult literature while placing special emphasis on contemporary works with nontraditional themes, protagonists, and literary conventions that are well suited to young adult readers. It looks at the ways in which contemporary readers can access literature and share the works they're reading and it shows teachers the resources that are available, especially online, for choosing and using good literature in the classroom and for recommending books for their students' personal reading. In addition to traditional genre chapters, this book includes chapters on literary nonfiction, poetry, short stories, and drama and film. Graphic novels, diversity issues, and uses of technology are also included throughout the text. The book's discussion of literary language, including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms, enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their peers and others when communicating about books. This book is an essential resource for preservice educators to help young adults understand and appreciate the excellent literature that is available to them. New to the second edition: New popular authors, books, and movies with a greater focus on diversity of literature; Updated coverage of new trends such as metafiction, a renewed focus on nonfiction, and retellings of canonical works; Increased attention to graphic novels and multimodal texts throughout the book; eResources with downloadable materials, including book lists, awards lists, and Focus Questions.

Fantasy Fiction Jennifer Pullen, 2024-01-11 The first fantasy writing textbook to combine a historical genre overview with an anthology and comprehensive craft guide, this book explores the blueprints of one of the most popular forms of genre fiction. The first section will acquaint readers with the vast canon of existing fantasy fiction and outline the many subgenres encompassed within it before examining the important relationship between fantasy and creative writing: the academy and publishing. A craft guide follows which equips students with the key concepts of storytelling as they are impacted by writing through a fantastical lens. These include Character and dialogue, Point of view, Plot and structure, Worldbuilding, settings, ideologies, and cultures, Style and revision. The third section guides students through the spectrum of styles as they are classified in fantasy fiction from Epic and high fantasy through Lovecraftian and Weird fiction to magical realism and hybrid fantasy An accompanying anthology will provide students with a greater awareness of the range of possibilities open to them as fantasy writers and will feature such writers as Ursula Le Guin China Miéville Theodora Goss Emrys Donaldson Ken Liu C S E Cooney Vandana Singh Sofia Samatar Rebecca Roanhorse Jessie Ulmer Yxta Maya Murray and Rachael K Jones With writing exercises prompts additional online resources and cues for further reading throughout this is an essential resource for anyone wanting to write fantastical fiction
