Christian Rollinger and Christine Walde's Classical Reception Studies expands classical reception studies by publishing original scholarship free of charge and by reflecting on Greco Roman antiquity as present phenomenon and diachronic culture that is part of today's transcultural and highly diverse world. Antiquity in our understanding does not merely belong to the past but is always experienced and engaged in the present. Classical Reception Studies contributes to the critical review on methods, theories, approaches and subjects in classical scholarship which currently seems to be awkwardly divided between traditional perspectives and cultural turns. Classical Reception Studies brings together scholars, writers, essayists, artists and all kinds of agents in the culture industry to get a better understanding of how antiquity constitutes a part of today's culture and transforms our present. Classical Reception Studies appears twice yearly and publishes regular issues as well as specially themed and guest edited issues focused on individual subjects and questions. Call for papers are released regularly and long in advance on our homepage <https://www.classical-reception-studies.de> and on other pages that feature announcements for classical studies. Women Poets and Myth in the 20th and 21st Centuries Rosa Burillo, María Porrás Sánchez, Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2018-10-29 This book rereads and re-examines the important tradition of women poets and theorists who have both critically and creatively engaged with the study and reconsideration of the role played by myths in our Western society, assessing their impact in different eras. Such poets and theorists as H. D., Laura Riding, Denise Levertov, Margaret Atwood, Anne Carson and Natalie Diaz have responded to myths either by recreating, rewriting and interrogating the power of myths to articulate our reality or by creating and begetting new myths for the present. In order to interrogate whether myths throughout the 20th and 21st centuries can act as catalysts for new ideas and imaginative re-creations, this volume travels the path of essential works of poetry by women. International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt, Sheila G.
