series of hypothetical practical cases in public international law including some of its specialised branches such as international human rights law and international criminal law It challenges students to practise and familiarise themselves with the methodology and to write solutions to practical international legal questions The book is in two parts part one contains practical exam like questions while part two contains the solutions The practical questions in part one are organised by subject such as treaty law or state responsibility One chapter is dedicated to more complex interconnected cases where students are asked to tackle problems which span multiple potential cases and topics

ENDORSEMENT An extremely interesting and innovative text that students studying Public International Law should find invaluable Associate Professor Joanne Sellick Associate Dean for Teaching and Learning University of Plymouth

Children and War James Marten, 2002-08-24 Children have always been involved in warfare This text shows that they have contributed to home front war efforts and that war time experiences have always affected the ways children of war perceive themselves and their societies
