

The background of the slide is a dark, moody painting. It depicts a scorpion, possibly a tarantula, on a rough, textured surface that looks like a rock or a piece of bark. The scorpion is positioned on the left side, with its pincers raised. The lighting is dramatic, coming from the upper left, which creates strong highlights on the scorpion's body and the surrounding surface, while the rest of the scene is in deep shadow. The overall color palette is dominated by browns, blacks, and greys, with some lighter, almost white, highlights.
