Media Sensation Mindfulness Meditation:

The Inner Logout Rakesh Mishra, We live in an era where the boundaries between the physical and digital worlds have blurred to the point of near indistinction The smartphone in your pocket the laptop on your desk the smartwatch on your wrist these devices once heralded as tools of convenience have woven themselves into the fabric of our daily lives dictating how we work connect and even think This hyperconnected world while a marvel of human ingenuity has birthed what can only be described as a digital epidemic an insidious pervasive force that fragments our attention erodes our mental well being and distances us from our inner selves The statistics paint a stark picture As of 2025 the average person spends over 7 hours a day on screens with global internet users surpassing 5 billion Social media platforms streaming services and instant messaging apps compete relentlessly for our attention leveraging algorithms designed to keep us scrolling clicking and engaging The average smartphone user checks their device 150 times a day often without conscious intent driven by a dopamine fueled cycle of notifications and instant gratification This constant connectivity has transformed how we interact with the world but at what cost The digital epidemic is not just about time spent online it s about the psychological and emotional toll it exacts Studies show a sharp rise in anxiety depression and sleep disorders correlated with excessive screen time The constant barrage of notifications emails likes retweets breaking news creates a state of perpetual alertness leaving our nervous systems in a chronic state of fight or flight The prefrontal cortex responsible for focus and decision making is overwhelmed by the sheer volume of information we process daily leading to what psychologists call cognitive overload This overload manifests as mental fog reduced productivity and a pervasive sense of being always on yet never fully present

A History of Mindfulness Bhikkhu Sujato,2011-07-18 The Satipa h na Sutta is the most influential scripture in Buddhist meditation It is the foundation text for the modern schools of vipassan or insight meditation The well known Pali discourse is however only one of many early Buddhist texts that deal with mindfulness This is the first full scale study to encompass all extant versions of the Satipa h na Sutta taking into account the dynamic evolution of the Buddhist scriptures and the broader Indian meditative culture A new vision emerges from this groundbreaking study mindfulness is not a system of dry insight but is the way to convergence leading the mind to deep states of peace
