Independent School Libraries Dorcas Hand, 2010-06-11 The first book published about independent school libraries since 1985 this work offers both the independent school library community and the broader school library community a wealth of insights into excellence in library practice Independent School Libraries Perspectives on Excellence offers readers insights into best practices in library services for school communities using examples drawn from independent schools of various sizes descriptions and locations across the United States Two overview essays introduce a statistical analysis of independent schools Each of the remaining essays provides perspective on a different aspect of library practice including staffing advocacy assessment technology collaboration programs beyond the curriculum intellectual freedom and privacy budgeting accreditation disaster planning and more Because independent school librarians work across divisions and without a mandate to adhere to state or national standards they have the freedom to explore and refine best practice in a school library setting Fortunately the ideas and methods they have developed many of which are on display here can be applied in any school library The Elementary School Library Collection, Phases 1-2-3 ,1976 Integrating School Bus and Public Transportation Services in Non-urban Communities Transit Cooperative Research Program,1999 This report will be of interest to managers of public transportation and school bus systems transportation planning and operations professionals policy makers and others interested in the potential for coordinating or integrating school bus and public transportation services in non urban areas The report identifies and discusses issues associated with such coordination or integration and provides 13 case studies of communities that have successfully coordinated or integrated some aspect of school and public transportation services The report also provides an implementation guide that suggests next steps for non urban communities seeking to give serious consideration to the coordination or integration of school and public transportation services
