Sunday Meetin Time The Little Church On The Hill:

Sunday Meetin' Time Patricia McCullough Walston, 2015-06-12 Book One of Sunday Meetin Time left the Alrods sitting at their Thanksgiving table in 1939 Christmas and the New Year are just around the corner a heavy snowstorm is brewing over the mountains It would be a miracle if Sandy Claus could find the Alrod farm There is no money for gifts and yet the Alrods will have The Best Christmas Ever in the Barn Five year old LeRoy is wearing a path back and forth from the window trying to get a glimpse of the reindeer landing The oldest Alrod children Billy Joe and Sarah Louise are determined to make Christmas as happy as possible for the little ones The younger children are sneaking to take bites from Sarah Louises poorly decorated cookies hanging on the tree Many of the popcorn strings have more strings showing than popcorn Sarah Louise is quite the little Mama caring for the new baby Papa and the others are helping all they can to make up for Mamas absence The cast on Papas broken leg makes it difficult for him to get around Billy Joe is taking care of the animals Medical bills are piling up with a mortgage on the farm overdue There havent been any offerings in the plate at church for Preacher Alrod in several weeks The Alrods feel blessed to have had such a resourceful Mama Because of her hard work all summer long she has a cellar filled with canned foods her cabinets are lined with homemade jams and jellies Papa had filled the smokehouse with as much meat as he could Without those preparations they would have nothing to eat Yet they were all looking forward to Night Watch Service on New Years Eve bringing in the New Year of 1940 in the little church on the hill Sunday

Meetin' Time Patricia McCullough Walston, 2015-05-21 Sunday Meetin Time is a compelling story written in the same vein as Id Climb the Highest Mountain or The Waltons It is adapted from the widely read online series of short stories written by Ms Walston several years ago Sunday Meetin Time Nestled in a low valley beneath the foothills of a small mountain range you will find life happening everywhere An intimate riveting story of a bygone era set in the late 1930s and early 1940s Sunday Meetin Time reveals the lives of the Alrod family their church and their friends An immigrant grandfather from Ireland settled the farm that would remain for over 150 years The side effects of this book will cause you to sob at the familys losses and laugh at their antics as they praise God through it all in the little church on the hill Herman Alrod is a corn farmer by heritage and inheritance He becomes the reluctant pastor of the little church on the hill This book is a remembrance to those who have fond memories of this era It will enlighten those who come behind them with the history poems songs scripture romance mystery and adventure of bygone days America was made strong by families who worshiped in small rural churches honored God loved their families and respected their country Could America be saved by the same You will love and laugh at five year old LeRoy and his hijinks The Memories of Slavery - Complete Collection Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Austin Steward, Ida B. When We Were Slaves Work Projects Administration, 2023-12-18 In the poignant anthology When We Were Slaves the Works Progress Administration WPA documents the harrowing narratives of formerly enslaved individuals in the United States This collection weaves together oral histories that vividly recount the brutality and dehumanization faced by enslaved people juxtaposed against their enduring resilience and culture Written in a direct yet evocative style the text serves as an invaluable record of American history reflecting the WPA's broader mission to capture and preserve the voices of marginalized communities during the Great Depression The juxtaposition of personal testimonies with broader social commentary situates these narratives within a comprehensive examination of systemic injustice and human endurance The Works Progress Administration was an essential agency during the New Deal dedicated to providing jobs and fostering cultural projects The collection emerged from a vast initiative to document the legacies of slavery through interviews with individuals who experienced it first hand This endeavor was not only a means of preserving history but also aimed at acknowledging the cultural impact of slavery on American society When We Were Slaves is a crucial read for anyone seeking to understand the realities of slavery its lasting effects on American society and the importance of storytelling in seeking justice and healing This book offers a powerful connection to the past and challenges readers to confront the complexities of history

Women, Power, and Dissent in the Hills of Carolina Mary K. Anglin, 2002 Women Power and Dissent in the Hills of Carolina is a unique and impassioned exploration of gender labor and resistance in western North Carolina Based on eight months of field research in a mica manufacturing plant and the surrounding rural community as well as oral histories of women who worked in mica houses in the early twentieth century this landmark study canvasses the history of the mica industry and the ways it came to be organized around women's labor Mary K Anglin's investigation of working women's lives in the plant she calls Moth Hill Mica Company reveals the ways women have contributed to household and regional economies for more than a century Without union support or recognition as skilled laborers these women developed alternate strategies for challenging the poor working conditions paltry wages and corporate rhetoric of Moth Hill Utilizing the power of memory and strong family and community ties as well as their own interpretations of gender and culture the women have found ways to boss themselves
