Epidemic Cinema Julia Echeverría, 2023-12-08 This book examines the recent trend in global cinema to feature infectious disease As the global crisis of the COVID 19 pandemic materialised the anxieties and discourses of world risk that had long been portrayed in popular media the book provides a novel definition of the epidemic film genre and offers a systematic look into the narrative and stylistic conventions that characterise it Epidemic Cinema traces the evolution of the genre from its early cinematic origins to establish the founding principles of a genre standing at the crossroads between science fiction and horror It draws on close textual analysis to show how the pandemic reified one of the central predicaments of epidemic narratives the constant tension existing between free floating phenomena and the impulse to control and resist such phenomena ultimately epitomised by the trope of the border Showing how infectious diseases offer a rich allegorical frame which cinema uses to articulate timely anxieties of growingly invisible and deterritorialised risks the author presents the prevalence of contagion in popular culture as a symptom of this growingly viral and virus ridden context both in its most literal and metaphorical sense This insightful study will interest students and scholars of film studies global cinema science fiction horror popular culture and genre theory

Hit Makers Derek Thompson, 2017-02-07 What makes a hit a hit In Hit Makers Atlantic Senior Editor Derek Thompson puts pop culture under the lens of science to answer the question that every business every producer every person looking to promote themselves and their work has asked Drawing on ancient history and modern headlines from vampire lore and Brahms's Lullaby to Instagram Thompson explores the economics and psychology of why certain things become extraordinarily popular With incisive analysis and captivating storytelling he reveals that though blockbuster films Internet memes and number one songs seem to have come out of nowhere hits actually have a story and operate by certain rules People gravitate towards familiar surprises products that are bold and innovative yet instantly comprehensible Whether he is uncovering the secrets of JFK and Barack Obama's speechwriters or analysing the unexpected reasons for the success of Fifty Shades of Grey Thompson goes beyond the cultural phenomena that make the news by revealing the desires that make us all human While technology might change he shows our innate preferences do not and throughout history hits have held up a mirror to ourselves From the dawn of Impressionist art to the future of Snapchat from small scale Etsy entrepreneurs to the origin of Star Wars Derek Thompson tells the fascinating story of how culture happens and where genius lives The Management Accountant, 2006
