Cli Fi Novel Media Sensation:

Cli-Fi and Class Debra J. Rosenthal, Jason de Lara Molesky, 2023-10-09 Since its emergence in the late twentieth century climate fiction or cli fi has concerned itself as much with economic injustice and popular revolt as with rising seas and soaring temperatures Indeed with its insistent focus on redressing social disparities cli fi might reasonably be classified as a form of protest literature As environmental crises escalate and inequality intensifies literary writers and scholars alike have increasingly scrutinized the dual exploitations of the earth s ecosystems and the socioeconomically disadvantaged Cli Fi and Class focuses on the representation of class dynamics in climate change narratives With fifteen essays on the intersection of the economic and the ecological addressing works ranging from the novels of Joseph Conrad Cormac McCarthy and Octavia Butler to the film Black Panther and the Broadway musical Hadestown this collection unpacks the complex ways economic exploitation impacts planetary well being and the ways climatic change shapes those inequities in turn The Noah Myth in Twenty-first-century Cli-fi Novels Helen E. Mundler, 2022 Breaks new ground by both analyzing the literary qualities of four recent rewritings of the Noah myth and contextualizing their concern with climate change within the wider crises of the Anthropocene With the rise of concern about global warming in recent years climate change fiction or cli fi has become increasingly important both as a publishing phenomenon and as an area of academic study and research Flood narratives have become a subsection of cli fi in their own right This book proposes new readings of four recent rewritings of the Noah myth Odds Against Tomorrow by Nathaniel Rich Margaret Atwood s Maddaddam trilogy When the Floods Came by Clare Morrall and The Flood by Maggie Gee Helen E Mundler s book takes into account the wealth of criticism that has appeared on these texts in recent years acknowledging important contributions from critics including Adam Trexler Adeline Johns Putra and Astrid Bracke However her book s strength is that it takes a new approach going beyond the topicality of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene y of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene y of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene y of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene Apocalyptic Visions in the Anthropocene and the Rise of Climate Fiction Kübra Baysal, 2021-08-10 With the increasing interest of pop culture and academia towards environmental issues which has simultaneously given rise to fiction and artworks dealing with interdisciplinary issues climate change is an undeniable reality of our time In accordance with the severe environmental degradation and health crises today including the COVID 19 pandemic human beings are awakening to this reality through climate fiction cli fi which depicts ways to deal with the anthropogenic transformations on Earth through apocalyptic worlds as displayed in works of literature media and art Appealing to a wide range of readers from NGOs to students this book fills a gap in the fields of literature media and art and sheds light on the inevitable interconnection of humankind with the nonhuman environment through effective descriptions of associable conditions in the works of climate fiction The Aesthetics of Collective Agency

Simone Knewitz, Stefanie Mueller, 2024-10-30 Twenty first century Western culture is characterized by profound transformations in its forms of collective organization While traditional institutions of Western liberal democracies still wield significant political power new forms of collective agency most visible in progressive social protest movements but also in the global rise of populism have increasingly put pressure on established systems of collective organization The contributors to this volume explore the social political and aesthetic forms that collective agency takes in the twenty first century across a variety of media including social platforms such as TikTok multiplayer video games and contemporary lyric poetry

Communicating Science, Climate Change and the Environment in Hybrid Media Mette Marie Roslyng, Anna Rantasila, Anna Maria Jönsson, 2025-05-30 This volume examines how a new hybrid mediascape represents and contributes to the construction of facts and knowledge in relation to science environment and climate controversies providing a new critical perspective to the burgeoning field of science and environment communication Arguing that science must be understood from an inclusive perspective respecting public values and concerns alongside scientific arguments the authors demonstrate how this will allow us to properly understand the role of science truth and factuality alongside the ethical cultural and political concerns about science raised in different publics The chapters focus on the more controversial aspects of science and environmental communication misinformation public understandings of science and the environmental crises vaccination and the role of the hybrid mediascape in science environment and climate conflicts Offering a much needed interdisciplinary approach to understand the role of science of media in science and environment conflicts this book will appeal to students and academics in the areas of media and communication journalism cultural studies science environment and risk communication and digital media studies as well as sociology and political science The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license An electronic version of this book is freely available thanks to the support of libraries working with Knowledge Unlatched KU KU is a collaborative initiative designed to make high quality books Open Access for the public good The Open Access ISBN for this book is 9781003479550 More information about the initiative and links to the Open Access version can be found at www.knowledgeunlatched.org Imaginative Ecologies, 2021-12-13 Imaginative

Ecologies Inspiring Change through the Humanities highlights the role literature and visual arts play in fostering sustainability. It weaves together contributions by international scholars, practitioners and environmental activists whose insights are brought together to illustrate how creative imaginations can inspire change. One of the most outstanding characteristics of this volume is its interdisciplinarity and its varied methods of inquiry. The field of environmental humanities is discussed together with ideas such as the role of the public intellectual and el buen vivir. Examples of ecofiction from the UK, the US and Spain are analysed while artistic practices aimed at raising awareness of the effects of the Anthropocene are presented as imaginative ways of reacting against climate change and rampant capitalism.

Research Handbook on Communicating Climate Change David C. Holmes, Lucy M. Richardson, 2020-12-25 Drawing together key frameworks and disciplines that illuminate the importance of communication around climate change, this Research Handbook offers a vital knowledge base to address the urgency of conveying climate issues to a variety of audiences.

Mixed Feelings Douglas Cairns, Pia Campeggiani, 2025-06-02 Affective valence typically refers to the way an affective state feels, i.e. the quality of the displeasure we subjectively experience. Fear usually feels unpleasant while joy feels good. Yet sometimes affective experience feels bittersweet, i.e. good and bad at the same time as when we enjoy being scared on the roller coaster or being sad when reading a heart-rending novel. In these situations, mixed affect is experienced as a blended state in which positive and negative aspects cannot be prised apart in any meaningful way. But mixed affect can also arise from conflicting emotions, e.g. when we desire something that we also wish to avoid from ambivalence, e.g. when we are of two minds about something and more. Taking a cross-cultural and multidisciplinary perspective, this volume aims to enrich our understanding of the phenomenology of mixed affective experiences. It explores narrative representations of mixed emotions in historical and literary works in both Western and Eastern traditions as well as the theorization of such experiences in these traditions. It will be of interest to students and scholars of literature, especially classical Chinese, Greek, Indian and Latin history of emotions and philosophy.

The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark Bould, Andrew M. Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields. It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today, marking the significant changes that have taken place in SF studies over the past 15 years. Building on the pioneering research in the first edition, the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print. It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction. The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context, including South Asian, Latin American, Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Climate Mobility Justice Elena Giacomelli, Pierluigi Musarò, 2025-11-08 This book explores how the intertwined challenges of climate change and human immobilities are being narrated governed and resisted From media and policies to art and activism the book investigates the stories we tell and the ones we silence about who moves who stays and who tries to govern human mobilities What emerges is a powerful critique of crisis narratives that legitimize fear repression and exclusion and a call for new imaginaries grounded in justice care and planetary belonging Engaging with voices from the Global South Indigenous epistemologies and feminist and decolonial thought this book offers a bold rethinking of how to confront one of the defining issues of our time It is essential reading for anyone interested in the future of climate politics migration and global solidarity

Climate Fiction and Cultural Analysis Gregers Andersen, 2019-09-25 Climate Fiction and Cultural Analysis argues that the popularity of the term climate fiction has paradoxically exhausted the term's descriptive power and that it has developed into a black box containing all kinds of fictions which depict climatic events and has consequently lost its true significance Aware of the prospect of ecological collapse as well as our apparent inability to avert it we face geophysical changes of drastic proportions that severely challenge our ability to imagine the consequences This book argues that this crisis of imagination can be partly relieved by climate fiction which may help us comprehend the potential impact of the crisis we are facing Strictly assigning climate fiction to fictions that incorporate the climatological paradigm of anthropogenic global warming into their plots this book sets out to salvage the term's speculative quality It argues that climate fiction should be regarded as no less than a vital supplement to climate science because climate fiction makes visible and conceivable future modes of existence within worlds not only deemed likely by science but which are scientifically anticipated Focusing primarily on English and German language fictions Climate Fiction and Cultural Analysis shows how Western climate fiction sketches various affective and cognitive relations to the world in its utilization of a small number of recurring imaginaries or imagination forms This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecocriticism the environmental humanities and literary and culture studies more generally

The Routledge Companion to Literatures and Crisis Silvia Pellicer-Ortín, Julia Kuznetski, Chiara Battisti, 2024-10-22 The Routledge Companion to Literatures and Crisis provides deep insight into a complex and multi-layered phenomenon The third decade of the twenty-first century is being marked by a polycrisis caused by various world crises such as the COVID-19 pandemic armed conflicts and climate change leading to economic geopolitical environmental health and security crises Featuring 42 chapters the collection examines crises through literary texts in relation to the environment finance migration and diaspora war human rights values and identity health politics terrorism and technology It illuminates the many faces of the current permacrisis as well as the multifarious crises of the past and their representation in literatures across ages and cultures from the Viking wars Black Death in mediaeval Europe technology in ancient China and the crisis of power in Elizabethan England to imperial biopower in nineteenth century India the genocides in the twentieth century upsurge of domestic violence during the Covid lockdown in Spain and the development of AI The Companion connects diverse cultures disciplines and academic traditions to show how and why literature media and art can voice all types of crises across times It will be a key resource for students and researchers in a broad range of areas including literature film studies narrative studies cultural studies international politics and ecocriticism Chapters Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Exploring Dark Comedy in Ecological Literature Mohammad Rahmatullah, Tanu Gupta, Nagendra Kumar, 2025-09-30 In this textbook dark comedy is reimagined as an ecological instrument a volatile compound of irony grotesquerie and mischievous insight that exposes the carbonised scaffolding of late capitalist life Rather than sneering at catastrophe the chapters anatomise the mechanics defamiliarising punch line carnival inversion affective whiplash by which humour slips past guard dogs and rouses an anaesthetised public The horizon against which this inquiry unfolds is the Capitalocene a name that indicts capitalism not Man as the principal geological agent of ruin Moving from Aristophanes to Atwood from street theatre to streaming satire each text shows laughter doing intellectual lifting In one moment it fractures complacent common sense in the next it stitches together circuits of feeling in which eco grief can transmute into civic resolve Juxtaposed with the authority of tragic form dark comedy proves the more permeable solvent it dissolves cultural defences lets paradox breathe and leaves readers wondering how ecosystems became punch lines Methodologically the book is multidisciplinary Literary tangles with environmental philosophy humour theory quarrels with eco Marxism cultural studies supplies the ethnographic grit that keeps abstraction honest By braiding those strands the argument departs from standard ecocritical curricula insisting that jokes are not side shows but catalytic sites where ethics affect and political economy collide Designed for advanced undergraduates yet hospitable to researchers the volume refuses the consolations of easy optimism even as it gestures toward actionable hope Its wager is simple teach readers to hear the subversive crackle inside dark laughter and they may also learn to re-script the damaged world that provokes it

Innovative Approaches to Multidisciplinary Exploration Dr. Uma Devi C.K., Prof Amos R, Dr. Gayathri J.U., Ms. S. Kirutheeba, Dr. Devansh Desai, 2025-05-21 Edited by Dr Uma Devi C K Prof Amos R Dr Gayathri J U Ms S Kirutheeba Dr Devansh Desai Exploring Environmental Violence Richard A. Marcantonio, John Paul Lederach, Agustín Fuentes, 2024-05-09 The contributors to this book represent a wide breadth of scholarly approaches including law social and environmental science engineering as well as from the arts and humanities The chapters explore what environmental violence is and does and the variety of ways in which it affects different communities The authors draw on empirical data from around the globe including Ukraine French Polynesia Latin America and the Arctic The variety of responses to environmental violence by different communities whether through active resistance or the creative arts are also discussed providing the foundation on which to build alternatives to the potentially damaging trajectory on which humans currently find themselves This book is indispensable for researchers and policymakers in environmental policy and peacebuilding This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Literary Fiction Analysis Mason Ross, AI, 2025-02-19 Literary fiction's endurance in the face of visual media dominance is the central question explored in Literary Fiction Analysis This book examines the cultural impact readership and market position of literary fiction challenging assumptions about its decline The book uncovers the motivations behind readers' choices and how literary fiction shapes their understanding of the world It also investigates the roles of publishers booksellers and literary prizes in the book market and how literary fiction engages with social and political issues The analysis is structured around three pillars reader demographics economic structures and cultural conversations Drawing on sales data readership surveys and textual analysis the book provides an academic yet accessible exploration of 21st century literature particularly Anglophone works It traces the historical evolution of literary fiction distinguishing it from genre fiction The book progresses logically first defining literary fiction then analyzing its readership and market forces and finally exploring its cultural impact and potential for social change The book argues that literary fiction retains a vital position in our cultural ecosystem by offering unique intellectual and emotional engagement Making use of diverse evidence from market reports to reader interviews the book connects to fields like sociology and cultural studies to provide a critical understanding of literary fiction's challenges and opportunities in the digital age This deep dive into fiction analysis makes the book valuable to students researchers publishing professionals and avid readers alike

Understanding Public Debates Jens Martin Gurr, 2024-06-20 By historicizing and contextualizing them through readings of carefully selected literary texts literary studies can contribute to understanding and rationalizing key debates waged in many pluralist societies today whether on different conceptions of liberty identity politics historical commemoration challenges of globalization or responses to climate change Understanding Public Debates presents case studies including Milton's Paradise Lost P B Shelley's 1820 Reform essay Philip Roth's The Human Stain the songwriting of Neil Young and Edward Young's 1720s Sea Odes recent climate fiction as well as non literary conflict narratives Rather than mining texts for arguments for or against certain positions this book is interested in how texts stage these debates by means of multiple perspectives narrative situations or ambiguities By suggesting how educators might use literary texts as conversation starters for more rational debates the volume also contributes to Public Literary Studies Three important fields are here brought together 1 the study of societal debates and conflicts and the ways in which they challenge pluralist societies 2 explorations of the societal functions of literature and of non literary narratives and 3 discussions of the role and functions of literary studies The book ends with ten crisp theses on how literary studies can contribute to understanding and rationalizing such conflictive debates The Cambridge Companion to American Literature and the Environment
