Operational guidelines for the design, implementation and harmonization of monitoring and evaluation systems for climate-smart agriculture Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2019-09-24 Monitoring and evaluation M E is recognized as critically important for tracking progress whether it serves the purpose of accountability to donors informs future improvements to CSA practices or contributes to the aggregate global progress toward meeting the SDGs or the global stocktake under the Paris Agreement There has been a growing chorus acknowledging the need to align the indicators and M E frameworks of major donors with those of the three global agreements Monitoring and reporting has begun on the SDGs although the development of methodologies for various indicators is an evolving process The development of specific indicators for the agriculture sector is also well underway for the Sendai Framework The organizations conducting this work have recognized the need to streamline these processes For example they have already attempted to align several of the indicators between the SDGs and the Sendai Framework These operational guidelines aim to address the core constraints and needs of FAO Member States on both the design and implementation of M E systems that can simultaneously address CSA and sector reporting requirements for the 2030 Agenda the Sendai Framework and the UNFCCC Paris Agreement First and foremost the guidelines acknowledge the principal need expressed by Member States that M E systems and indicators be simple and not onerous The challenges that have always existed with regard to M E for CSA are still present and are particularly pronounced for pillar 2 adaptation and resilience These challenges to the development of indicators for pillar 2 have exhibited the greatest need for attention Human Resource Management In Singapore - The Complete Guide, Volume E: Employee Conduct And Relations Oun Hean Loh, Jacqueline Suet Peck Chin, 2025-05-20 This HR management series is timely It is written in the Singapore context guided by our local employment laws and tripartite guidelines and standards I commend the authors for their endeavour to produce such a first Lim Swee Say Former Minister for Manpower Former Secretary General National Trades Union Congress Human Resource Management in Singapore The Complete Guide covers a wide spectrum of human resource management topics in five volumes Employment Management Work and Remuneration Employee Benefits Performance and Development and Employee Conduct and Relations In every chapter the WHY WHAT and HOW are presented lucidly The books are a must have GPS for any human resource practitioner in Singapore Students academics and bosses into human resource management as well as overseas human resource practitioners will also find the books helpful and instructive Volume E on Employee Conduct and Relations brings readers through the important and sensitive subjects of employee communication and engagement employee grievances workplace discrimination and workplace harassment General code of conduct and disciplinary management framework for misconduct embodying the principles of natural justice and rule of impartiality are covered comprehensively As organisations are made up of people who have motives habits and weaknesses people risks must be accorded importance and managed proactively The last eight chapters focus on industrial relations trade unions union membership union representation union recognition collective bargaining and industrial disputes and employment claims management packed with lucid case examples and industry practices drawn from the authors hands on experiences

Guidelines for HIV Care and Treatment Dr. Priyanka Gupta Manglik, 2024-08-15 Presents comprehensive clinical guidelines and treatment protocols for effective care management and monitoring of individuals living with HIV Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1996 The Community Food Forest Handbook Catherine Bukowski, John Munsell, 2018 Collaboration and leadership strategies for long term success Fueled by the popularity of permaculture and agroecology community food forests are capturing the imaginations of people in neighborhoods towns and cities across the United States Along with community gardens and farmers markets community food forests are an avenue toward creating access to nutritious food and promoting environmental sustainability where we live Interest in installing them in public spaces is on the rise People are the most vital component of community food forests but while we know more than ever about how to design food forests the ways in which to best organize and lead groups of people involved with these projects has received relatively little attention In The Community Food Forest Handbook Catherine Bukowski and John Munsell dive into the civic aspects of community food forests drawing on observations group meetings and interviews at over 20 projects across the country and their own experience creating and managing a food forest They combine the stories and strategies gathered during their research with concepts of community development and project management to outline steps for creating lasting public food forests that positively impact communities Rather than rehash food forest design which classic books such as Forest Gardening and Edible Forest Gardens address in great detail The Community Food Forest Handbook uses systems thinking and draws on social change theory to focus on how to work with diverse groups of people when conceiving of designing and implementing a community food forest To find practical ground the authors use management phases to highlight the ebb and flow of community capitals from a project s inception to its completion They also explore examples of positive feedbacks that are often unexpected but offer avenues for enhancing the success of a community food forest The Community Food Forest Handbook provides readers with helpful ideas for building and sustaining momentum working with diverse public and private stakeholders integrating assorted civic interests and visions within one project creating safe and attractive sites navigating community policies positively affecting public perception and managing site evolution and adaptation Its concepts and examples showcase the complexities of community food forests highlighting the human resilience of those who learn and experience what is possible when they collaborate on a shared vision for their community
