The Small Place Elsa Rehmman,2017-09-16 Excerpt from The Small Place Its Landscape Architecture IT is a great pleasure to make acknowledgments to those who have contributed in so friendly a manner to this book I would thank the owners of the places for grant ing me the privilege of visiting and discussing their problems As some desired that their names should not appear I felt that all must remain anonymous In order to make an exact study and an accurate analysis of each place I have made many a pleasant little journey through the space of several years Three of the places I have un fortunately not seen but through a practice in the reading of plans reports and pictures I have been able to interpret the spirit of these places accu rately enough to satisfy the designers About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Small Place Elsa Rehmman,2013-10-01 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections

such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book

Warren H. Manning Robin Karson, Jane Roy Brown, Sarah Allaback, 2017-04-01 Warren H Manning s 1860 1938 national practice comprised more than sixteen hundred landscape design and planning projects throughout North America from small home grounds to estates cemeteries college campuses parks and park systems and new industrial towns Manning approached his design and planning projects from an environmental perspective conceptualizing projects as components of larger regional in some cases national systems a method that contrasted sharply with those of his stylistically oriented colleagues In this regard as in many others Manning had been influenced by his years with the Olmsted firm where the foundations of his resource based approach to design were forged Manning s overlay map methods later adopted by the renowned landscape architect Ian McHarg provided the basis for computer mapping software in widespread use today One of the eleven founders of the American Society of Landscape Architects Manning also ran one of the nation s largest offices where he trained several influential designers including Fletcher Steele A D Taylor Charles Gillette and Dan Kiley After Manning s death his reputation slipped into obscurity Contributors to the Warren H Manning Research Project have worked more than a decade to assess current conditions of his built projects and to compile a richly illustrated compendium of site essays that illuminate the range scope and significance of Manning s notable career with specially commissioned photographs by Carol Betsch

From Dangast to Colorado Springs Gert Gröning, 2016-08-03 Irma Franzen Heinrichsdorff was a 20th century landscape architect who was not widely known in Germany Her creative horticultural work included not least her impressive landscape ideas for private gardens some of which are presented and paid tribute to here for the first time In this book Franzen Heinrichsdorff s remarkable biography is traced using information from previously untapped sources Franzen Heinrichsdorff studied at the horticultural institute Lehr und Forschungsanstalt f r Gartenbau in Berlin Dahlem and became the first woman to gain the qualification of Staatlich diplomierte Gartenbauinspektorin i e horticultural inspector in the subject of landscape gardening She thereby attained the highest academic honour there was in this profession at the time Influenced by expressionism and with an interest in music and dance the accomplished illustrator and designer had a promising career as a landscape architect ahead of her Rather than marrying the distinguished solo flutist Alfred Tibursky the father of her two children she tied the knot with landscape architect Gustav Heinrichsdorff only to divorce him several years later Family related and professional difficulties forced Franzen Heinrichsdorff to give up her career and she went on to run a children s home in the North Sea resort of Dangast for twenty years instead Undeterred by intermittent harassment from National Socialists she also cared for three foster children there over the years It was not until later in life that she had the opportunity to work as a landscape architect once again in Colorado Springs in the United States of America two of her former foster children and her son were instrumental in paving the way for her Experiment Station Record U.S. Office of Experiment Stations, United States.
