The 14th Storm: A thriller-like dystopian cli-fi novel set in 2043 Daniel J Mooney,2025-07-10 In 2043 the climate has finally changed The planet is ravaged by violent storms and failing crops and much of the world is now uninhabitable Amidst a world of hungry and desperate people the Department of Environmental Justice has been tasked with finding and executing those who have denied climate change On the eve of the 14th storm Broderick and Malley are asked to hunt the leader of a stirring rebellion but something feels wrong Broderick is shut off and interested only in exacting revenge Malley is sceptical and thinks their latest target is more politically motivated than their employer is letting on Their journey is upended by Fionnuala a young and idealistic runaway who is hopeful for the future and desperate to save the target Together the three of them must learn to adapt to the climate and the polarised groups if they are to survive Rarely have I seen satire and dystopian literature combined to such compelling effect Jack Fennell Daniel J Mooney is an Irish author Inspired by current events and global voices his debut Me Myself and Them was published in 2017 followed by The Great Unexpected in 2018

City of Dancing Gargoyles Tara Campbell,2024-09-03 In the parched post apocalyptic Western U S of the 22nd Century wolves float bonfires sing and devils gather to pray Water and safety are elusive in this chaotic world of alchemical transformations where history books bleed dragons kiss and gun toting trees keep their own kind of peace Among this menagerie of strange beasts two sentient stone gargoyles known only as E and M flee the rubble of their Southwestern church in search of water Along the way they meet climate refugees Dolores Baker and her mother Rose who ve escaped the ravaged West Coast in search of a safer home This quartet forms an uneasy alliance when they hear of a new hope a mysterious city of dancing gargoyles Or is it something more sinister In this strange terrible new world their arrival at this elusive city could spark the destruction of everything they know Tara Campbell summons fantastical magic in this kaleidoscopic new speculative climate fiction

Eternal Summer Franziska Gänslar,2025-05-06 Set in a German spa town wracked by climate change this intense enthralling debut explores trust abuse and solidarity through the unexpected bond between two women When Iris took over the family hotel from her grandfather Bad Heim was still a popular spa town But now fierce wildfires rage in the area spewing smoke into the air The summers are dry and hot and never seem to end Guests have become a rare sight But suddenly a young mother shows up with her small daughter and asks for a room Something doesn t seem right about her Does she need help Or even pose a threat Franziska Gänslar s debut conjures up the heat of the fires the ashes falling on skin and the all pervading smell of smoke Yet you will want to stay with these women in this inhospitable place as they draw closer together and prepare to fight for their freedom

Reimagining Science Fiction Gary Westfahl,2025-10-31 In the first decades of the twenty first century science fiction literature has been transformed in many ways as the genre has reacted to the dominating influence of films television and video games the growing popularity of fantasy the rise of young adult science fiction and graphic novels the impact of the internet and social media and the increasing diversity of the authors characters and often non Western settings The essays making up this volume address these and other changes in two ways Some consider new critical approaches to science fiction in response to changing circumstances including analyses of how evolutionary psychology explains today s science fiction the emerging subgenre of cli fi exploring the effects of climate change the use of science fiction in different areas of the college curriculum and a statistical method for identifying works of science fiction Others examine significant new authors such as Nalo Hopkinson Charles Stross Paolo Bacigalupi Suzanne Collins Mira Grant John Sandford and David Mura Contributors include science fiction author Howard V Hendrix and experts in the fields of Chinese studies gender studies literature philosophy and religion

Reading the Romantic Ridiculous Andrew McInnes, Rita J. Dashwood, 2024-09-02 Reading The Romantic Ridiculous aims to take Romantic Studies from the sublime to the ridiculous Building on recent work that decentres the myth of the solitary genius this duograph theorises the ridiculous as an alternative affect to the sublime privileging collective laughter above solitude and selfishness and reflecting on these ideals through the practice of joint authorship Tracing the history of the ridiculous through Romantic and post Romantic debates about sublimity from the rediscovery of Longinus and the aesthetic theories of Burke and Kant to contemporary queer and postcolonial theory interested in silliness lowness and vulnerability Reading the Romantic Ridiculous explores Romanticism's surprising commitments to ridiculousness in canonical material by writers such as Samuel Taylor Coleridge Jane Austen and Charles Lamb as well as lesser known material from joke books to children's literature In theory and practice this duograph also considers the legacies of Romanticism and ridiculousness today analysing their influence on independent film sitcoms and young adult fiction as well as their place in higher education now

Crisis and the Culture of Fear and Anxiety in Contemporary Europe Carmen Zamorano Llena, Jonas Stier, Billy Gray, 2023-08-01 The accrual of crises over the last two decades with their particular manifestations in the European context has evoked the feeling of living in exceptional times as captured in the recurrent claim that we live in the age of anxiety The main aim of this collection is to analyse from a multidisciplinary perspective the causes and consequences of the current dominance of the discourse of fear anxiety and crisis through the experience of distinct and often interdependent moral panics in twenty first century Europe With its multidisciplinary approach this volume sheds light on the need to view the interrelationship between different crises and their associated affects as crucial in attaining a more nuanced understanding of the aetiology and effects of the current age of anxiety This multidisciplinary scrutiny of the interrelationship of twenty first century fears anxiety and crises signals an original engagement with these complex phenomena in order to make their emergence and profound effects on contemporary society more comprehensible The timeliness of the thematic focus and the rigorous in depth analyses make this collection relevant to students and academics within the fields of sociology literary and cultural studies political science and anthropology as well as to those in European studies and global studies

Suggested in the Stars Yoko Tawada, 2024-10-01 On the heels of Scattered All Over the Earth Yoko Tawada's new and irresistible Suggested in the Stars carries on her band of friends' astonishing and intrepid adventures It's hard to believe there could be a more enjoyable novel than Scattered All Over the Earth Yoko Tawada's rollicking touching cheerfully dystopian novel about friendship and climate change but surprising her readers is what Tawada does best its sequel Suggested in the Stars delivers exploits even more poignant and shambolic As Hiruko whose Land of Sushi has vanished into the sea and who is still searching for someone who speaks her mother tongue and her new friends travel onward they begin opening up to one another in new and extraordinary ways They try to help their friend Susanoo regain his voice both for his own good and so he can speak with Hiruko and amid many often hilarious misunderstandings some linguistic in nature they empower each other against despair Coping with carbon footprint worries but looping singly and in pairs they hitchhike take late night motorcycle rides and hop on the train learning about railway strikes but also packed train yoga to convene in Copenhagen There they find Susanoo in a strange hospital working with a scary speech loss doctor In the half basement of this weird medical center with strong echoes of Lars von Trier s 1990s TV series The Kingdom they also find two special kids washing dishes They discover magic radios personality swaps ship tickets delivered by a robot and other gifts But friendship loaning one another the nerve and heart to keep going sets them all and the reader to dreaming of something more Suggested in the Stars delivers new delights and Yoko Tawada s famed new trilogy will conclude in 2025 with Archipelago of the Sun even if nobody will ever want this strange exquisite The New Yorker trip to end

Dystopias and Utopias on Earth and Beyond Douglas A. Vakoch, 2021-04-29 Caught as we are in a grave climate crisis that seems more irreversible with every passing year our literary portrayals of the future often feature the dystopian collapse of the world as we know it Science fiction explores how we got here while pointing toward a more hopeful path forward From an ecofeminist perspective a core cause of our current ecological catastrophe is the patriarchal domination of nature playing out in parallel with the oppression of women As an alternative to dystopian futures that seem increasingly inevitable ecofeminist science fiction helps us conjure utopias that promote environmental sustainability based on more egalitarian human relationships Dystopias and Utopias on Earth and Beyond Feminist Ecocriticism of Science Fiction explores the fictional worlds of such canonical novelists as Margaret Atwood Octavia Butler Ursula K Le Guin Doris Lessing and Joan Slonczewski as well as those of lesser known science fiction writers as they collectively probe humanity s greatest existential threats Contributors from five continents provide compelling analyses of far future dystopias on Earth that are all too easy to imagine becoming reality if humankind s current trajectory continues as well as provocative insights into science fiction utopias set on idyllic planets orbiting distant stars which offer liberatory alternatives that might someday be actualized in the real world By examining the links between the destruction of the environment and the domination of women Dystopias and Utopias on Earth and Beyond provides the tools to counteract those intertwined oppressions helping create a foundation for a truly habitable world
