The Church Event Call And Challenge Of A Church Protestant:

The Church Event Vitor Westhelle, Is the church dying Noted theologian Vitor Westhelle urges an emphatic no and traces the church crisis to an ecclesiological deficit a lack of serious reflection on the real role of church as an ideal community and an institutional reality He finds real consensus among the Reformers on what church should mean and he traces the competing historical notions of church their relations to the sources of Protestant religious conviction and the gradual erosion of a sense for what it is the church actually represents Shared Spiritual Journey Susan K. Wood, Timothy J. Wengert, 2016 Language for God Mary J. Streufert, 2022-06-07 Language for God draws readers into the necessity of language and images for God that are expansive and inclusive of all genders People hunger for scriptural and theological explanations that adequately answer criticisms and support dialogue Using Lutheran perspectives as a compass Mary J Streufert offers scriptural theological and historical insights that advance Christianity's ongoing reformation of androcentric images and language for God This book is for a variety of people including those who are unsure of why language and images for God matter those who need assurance that language and images for God include all genders including people who identify as queer and those who want language for God to be faithful to the Scriptures and to the witness of the Christian theological tradition It is also for people who need convincing that God is Mother as much as Father pregnant Christ as much as crucified Christ and Godhead beyond all gendered appellations The book is pastoral in that it explores the deeply personal communal and social ways language and images influence who we are and how we live It takes seriously the hunger for more for God beyond the Father This book is also intellectual in that it challenges contemporary arguments for Father and Son as exclusive names for the first two persons of the Trinity by exploring historical developments in the ways people define sex gender and sexuality Without a rigorous assessment of how these views affect Christianity Christian language and images for God will remain androcentric Insights from the Reformation most pointedly from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition offer points on a compass toward the reformation of Christian language and images for God in our day The Disciples' Call Christopher Jamison, OSB, 2013-12-05 There is currently no shared language of vocation among Catholics in the developed post modern world of Europe and North America The decline in practice of the faith and a weakened understanding of Church teaching has led to reduced numbers of people entering into marriage religious life and priesthood Uniquely this book traces the development of vocation from scriptural patristic roots through Thomism and the Reformation to engage with the modern vocational crisis How are these two approaches compatible The universal call to holiness is expressed in Lumen Gentium has been read by some as meaning that any vocational choice has the same value as any other such choice is some sense of a higher calling part of the Catholic theology of vocation or not Some claim that the single life is a vocation on a par with marriage and religious life what kind of a theology of vocation leads to that conclusion And is the secular use of the word vocation to describe certain profession helpful or misleading in the context of Catholic theology

How the Reformation Began Anna Marie Johnson, Nicholas Hopman, 2022-04-13 The beginning of the Protestant Reformation is often dated to Luther's Ninety five Theses in 1517 but those theses might have been forgotten if not for the events that followed This book begins with the Ninety five Theses and outlines the subsequent events that shaped the Reformation at least as much as the Ninety five Theses and quite possibly more It provides a trove of primary documents by Luther and his opponents along with commentary by historians who understand the theological issues at stake Spanning the major milestones from 1517 to 1521 it concludes with the edicts that excommunicated Luther and the judgment against him with the imperial Edict of Worms By drawing attention to these texts and events the book gives a more complete picture of how the Reformation began

Nurturing the Prophetic Imagination Jamie Gates, Mark Mann, 2012-11-06 Nurturing the Prophetic Imagination searches through biblical scholarship theology economics sociology politics ecology and history to discern the strands of God's justice and reconciliation at work in the contemporary world Nurturing the Prophetic Imagination challenges Christians to engage the most troubling social problems of our time by first drinking deeply from the well of the historic prophetic traditions Nurturing the Prophetic Imagination witnesses to a God that raises up prophets to speak at critical moments in every time and to what it might look like for the Church to nurture the soil from which such prophetic voices spring Rarely do such a wide variety of authors from such different backgrounds and vocations get together to name what the prophetic work of God looks like in our midst The radical justice and reconciliation of God can be found in every corner of life if we know where to look for it Nurturing the Prophetic Imagination provides some guidance in this direction Nurturing the Prophetic Imagination celebrates and seeks to build upon the legacy of eminent biblical scholar Walter Brueggemann's seminal work The Prophetic Imagination first published in 1978 by assessing the core insights and themes he develops through a number of different lenses These include contemporary biblical scholarship theology economics sociology politics ecology and church history Nurturing the Prophetic Imagination also discusses the extent to which the Christian prophetic tradition continues to speak meaningfully within the contemporary world and thereby seeks to be a source for inspiring future generations of Christian prophets to do likewise

Apocalyptic and the Future of Theology Joshua B. Davis, Douglas Harink, 2012-11-07 Ernst Kasemann famously claimed that apocalyptic is the mother of Christian theology J Louis Martyn's radical interpretation of the overarching significance of apocalyptic in Paul's theology has pushed Kasemann's claim further and deeper Still despite the recognition that apocalyptic is at the core of New Testament and Pauline theology modern theology has often dismissed domesticated or demythologized early Christian apocalyptic A renewed interest in taking apocalyptic seriously is one of the most exciting developments in recent theology The essays in this volume taking their point of departure from the work of Martyn and Kasemann wrestle critically with the promise and possible peril of the apocalyptic transformation of Christian theology With original contributions from established scholars including Beverly Gaventa Stanley Hauerwas Robert Jenson Walter Lowe Joseph Mangina Christopher

Morse and Fleming Rutledge as well as younger voices this volume makes a substantial contribution to the discussion of apocalyptic and theology today A unique feature of the book is a personal reflection on Ernst Kasemann by J Louis Martyn himself

Transformative Lutheran Theologies Mary J. Streufert, 2010 The first of its kind this book is a systematic presentation of Lutheran feminist womanist and mujerista theologies systematic in that it addresses classical loci of systematic theology contemporary in that it is resoundingly constructive and relevant for the contemporary church and feminist in that the contributors write from a feminist perspective although they reflect a variety of positions within feminist discourse The contributors to this multi authored work share a common commitment to Lutheran theology as a continual process of reform Luther is a partner in the conversation because of his theological insights and commitment to faithful criticism which the writers seek to continue not because his voice settles a debate The book focuses on central themes that Luther addressed and that are representative of Lutheranism today including justification by grace through faith and Luther's theology of the cross From diverse contexts these Lutheran theologians like Luther seek reformation by giving voice to new perspectives in theology that continue to transform the church and the world Along with Mary J Streufert contributors include Krista E Hughes Kathryn A Kleinhans Kristen E Kvam L DeAne Lagerquist Mary E Lowe Lois Malcolm Anna Mercedes Cynthia Moe Lobeda Cheryl M Peterson Mary Joy Philip Caryn D Riswold Deanna A Thompson Marit Trelstad Alicia Vargas and Beverly Wallace A remarkable addition to the rich history of Lutheran theology Not only have these theologians opened doors to fresh new worlds of Lutheran thought they've done so in a way that honors the past by extending it forward I can't wait to use Transformative Lutheran Theologies in class I've been waiting twenty years for a text like this Imagine teaching Luther's thought and placing it by side with these cutting edge essays Luther would no doubt be proud maybe even a bit envious Serene Jones President and Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology Union Theological Seminary New York

All These Things into Position Robert Cady Saler, 2019-07-19 Radiohead is simultaneously one of the most experimental and most successful rock bands on the planet While their lyrics rarely reference religion in this book Robert Saler argues that the discipline of Christian theology has a great deal to learn from the band when it comes to unflinching engagement with the world's brokenness and its longing for redemption Market dynamics the influence of capitalism on art ecological theology aesthetics and Christology all come together as Saler asks what it might mean for Radiohead to soundtrack a theology of defiance against the forces that create death in our daily lives

Public Theology in the Secular State Rudolf von Sinner, 2023-07-04 This book gives a persuasive answer to the need for public theology today Rudolf von Sinner can draw from a rich basis of scholarship and experience related to the topic of public theology His clear awareness of the contextuality of public theology is the reason for his repeated assurance in this book that we cannot speak about public theology but always only of a public theology At the same time it is very clear for him that there is also an intercontextuality One of the great strengths of this book is its embeddedness into an international discourse on public theology with a special emphasis on the South South exchange It is a contribution to public theology scholarship in its best sense I proudly welcome its publication in our series Bishop Prof Dr Heinrich Bedford Strohm Evangelical Church in Germany

Theologia Crucis Robert Cady Saler, 2016-10-04 Recovery of Paul and Luther's theology of the cross has been an enduring legacy of twentieth century theology and in our own day the topic has continued to expand as more and more global voices join the conversation The array of literature produced on the cross and its theological significance can be overwhelming In this readable and concise introduction Robert Saler provides an overview of the key motifs present in theologians seeking to understand how the cross of Jesus Christ informs the work of theology ministry and activism on behalf of victims of injustice today He also demonstrates how theology of the cross can be a lens through which to understand crucial questions of our time related to the nature of beauty God's redemption and the forces which seek to overwhelm both Ranging from Luther and Bonhoeffer to James Cone and feminist theologians Saler makes this literature accessible to all who wish to understand how the cross shapes Christian claims about God and God's work on behalf of the world

Being Promised Gregory Walter, 2013-10-16 Promise along with gift is among the predominant metaphors for the Western Christian tradition to describe God's gracious actions Being Promised argues that promise is itself a kind of gift exchange and analyzes the power time and place of God's promise Gregory Walter offers a theological analysis of promise anthropological and phenomenological reflection on gift exchange and a critical appreciation of other theological appropriations of gift to support his argument Walter clarifies the phenomenon of promise as gift and shows its theological hermeneutical and ethical significance No other book theologically examines promise and gift exchange like this one does

Transfiguring Luther Vitor Westhelle, 2017-02-23 Luther's theology has inspired many since 1517 when he nailed his ninety five theses to the door of the Castle Church It was the trigger for the Reformation a change in the very fabric of Christianity that is still studied extensively to this day Much of this work however has been conducted from either a European or North American perspective With Lutheranism becoming more and more common in the southern hemisphere new interpretations of Luther's theology are needed for these emergent and different contexts In Transfiguring Luther Vitor Westhelle offers a reading of Luther and his legacy that goes beyond the traditional geopolitics of Luther research exploring realities where the Reformer's reception and the latent promise of his theology receive unsuspected appraisal Westhelle provides both a revisitation of the past and an invitation to a new orientation By establishing a texture rather than a rigid actuality Westhelle allows the reader to reach their own conclusions about these seldom examined aspects of Luther's theology

Churrasco Mary (Joy) Philip, John Arthur Nunes, Charles M. Collier, 2013-05-01 Just as a churrasco is a Brazilian barbecue of a variety of meats Churrasco skewers together an ebullient and eclectic assortment of theological texts from around the world to honor and celebrate one of Brazil's most eclectic and creative theologians Vitor Westhelle Churrasco brings together different fields and disciplines transgressing boundaries and allowing them to seep into each other Though predominantly Lutheran the authors hail from various denominations and contexts Poised between in depth doctrinal and practically reflective essays are poetically creative pieces The contributions are exemplars of how to develop and foster language for God talk and how to appropriate our God talk in relationships with fellow human beings and with the environment The topical range is wide and spans from the theology of the cross to eschatology postcolonialism ecumenism science and religion the erotic otherness experience literature poetry and the reformer Martin Luther Unfettered by a common theme the essays nevertheless connect and weave a tapestry they raise key questions and they challenge theologians not only to rethink traditional concepts and contemporary views but also to reevaluate the task of theology itself Contributors include Walter Altmann Oswald Bayer Kathleen D Kadi Billman Luis H Dreher Philip Hefner Reinhard Hutter Claudia Jahnke Antje Jackelén Musimbi Kanyoro Robert Kolb John Arthur Nunes Kathleen Luana Ted Peters Mary Philip Jose David Rodriguez Deanna A Thompson Else Marie Wiberg Pederson Robert Zwetsch Everyday Armageddons Matthew Holmes, Thomas R. Gaulke, 2023-11-21 Drawing from two decades as a hospice chaplain nurses aide and emergency medical technician the Rev Matthew J Holmes invites us to peer into the often occulted dimensions of life's endings From bedsores to isolation impacted bowels to the nursing home economy from neglect to deep desperate love modern death's characteristics are navigated here with insight honesty depth and clarity Following the sense of horror and humor evoked in each narrative are theopoetic and theological reflections from the Rev Thomas R Gaulke PhD Tom brings a playfulness to the conversation engaging issues of hope meaningless disenchantment sacramentology grace and religiosity in relation to modern death and postmodern longing Every day worlds end Armageddon is not a battle far removed into the future It is taking place right now in the hospital at the nursing home across the street and inside our very bodies The world ends in ways big and small It ends in pain and in love It ends with tears and with relief The ends of worlds are often grotesque final battles the bloodiest This book is an opening into those endings and an invitation into the search for whatever meaning and whatever of God might lie therein Metamorphosis Sarah Travis, 2019-07-30 Post Christendom Christian leaders and preachers in North America struggle to respond to anxiety and despair about the future of the church Declining participation fewer resources decreased influence and confusion about pastoral and ecclesial identity lead to fear for the survival of the institutional church Preaching must speak to the despair and confusion faced by congregations today as well as cast a hopeful vision for an uncertain future This book argues that preachers can change the narrative of the church post Christendom by urging an exit from Christendom ecclesiology and promoting the construction of an identity that embraces vulnerability and incarnation instead of power and permanence Counterintuitively failure decrease and marginalization constitute good news for the church Through wide ranging conversation partners including postcolonial theory and theology social science systematic theology and homiletic literature this book engages preachers and scholars who seek to reimagine both gospel and ecclesial identity in order to bring new life to communities in despair Preachers participate in a process of metamorphosis in which the church's self understanding is transformed into a vulnerable incarnate community that leaves behind the character of Christendom

Eschatology and Space V. Westhelle, 2012-10-01 This unique volume focuses on the subjects of time in the area of theology known as eschatology the consideration of the fullness the limit and the goal of time He traces the historical development of understandings of eschatology from the Bible to contemporary theology and adds a postcolonial subaltern perspective The Protestant William M'Gavin, 1835 The Protestant William McGavin, 1823 Between

Magisterium and Marketplace Robert C. Saler, 2018-02-01 Robert C Saler argues for a fresh ecclesiology of the church as a diffusively spatialized event Within this framework Saler provides an ecclesiology that retains normativity while defining authorship and the constructive task of theology Establishing this claim through historical encounters between Thomas More and William Tyndale and John Henry Newman and Friedrich Schleiermacher Between Magisterium and Marketplace provides a theological genealogy of modern ecclesiology offering a humble yet hopeful view of the theological task in light of contemporary ecclesial opportunities
