Research Handbook on Communicating Climate Change David C. Holmes, Lucy M. Richardson, 2020-12-25 Drawing together key frameworks and disciplines that illuminate the importance of communication around climate change this Research Handbook offers a vital knowledge base to address the urgency of conveying climate issues to a variety of audiences

Cli-Fi and Class Debra J. Rosenthal, Jason de Lara Molesky, 2023-10-09 Since its emergence in the late twentieth century climate fiction or cli fi has concerned itself as much with economic injustice and popular revolt as with rising seas and soaring temperatures Indeed with its insistent focus on redressing social disparities cli fi might reasonably be classified as a form of protest literature As environmental crises escalate and inequality intensifies literary writers and scholars alike have increasingly scrutinized the dual exploitations of the earth's ecosystems and the socioeconomically disadvantaged Cli Fi and Class focuses on the representation of class dynamics in climate change narratives With fifteen essays on the intersection of the economic and the ecological addressing works ranging from the novels of Joseph Conrad Cormac McCarthy and Octavia Butler to the film Black Panther and the Broadway musical HadesTown this collection unpacks the complex ways economic exploitation impacts planetary well being and the ways climatic change shapes those inequities in turn

Narrating Multiplicities in Motion Elena Ogliari, Anna Pasolini, Carla Tempestoso, 2025-11-10 Narrating Multiplicities in Motion brings together a dynamic collection of interdisciplinary essays that explore storytelling as a powerful tool for resisting dominant narratives and imagining equitable futures Grounded in Cultural Studies English and Anglophone Literature and Linguistics the volume examines how narrative practices reframe identity challenge systemic inequalities and foster interconnectedness between human and more than human beings Through analyses of speculative fiction postcolonial narratives feminist reimaginings and contemporary media contributors investigate how stories reshape our understanding of bodies spaces and subjectivities Whether through the subversive humour of a contemporary TV anti heroine the reconfiguration of colonial pasts in Africanfuturist fiction or the embodied resistance found in post apocalyptic landscapes Narrating Multiplicities in Motion invites readers to engage with storytelling not merely as reflection but as political action In an age marked by crisis and uncertainty it reaffirms narrative as a site of resistance responsibility and radical possibility

Green Matters, 2019-11-26 Green Matters offers a fascinating insight into the regenerative function of literature with regard to environmental concerns Based on recent developments in ecocriticism the book demonstrates how the aesthetic dimension of literary texts makes them a vital force in the struggle for sustainable futures Applying this understanding to individual works from a number of different thematic fields cultural contexts and literary genres Green Matters presents novel approaches to the manifold ways in which literature can make a difference While the first sections of the book highlight the transnational the focus on Canada in the last section allows a more specific exploration of how themes genres and literary forms develop their own manifestations within a national context Through its unifying ecocultural focus and its variegated approaches the volume is an essential contribution to contemporary environmental humanities The Routledge Handbook of Fiction and Belief Alison James, Akihiro Kubo, Françoise Lavocat, 2023-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Fiction and Belief offers a fresh reevaluation of the relationship between fiction and belief surveying key debates and perspectives from a range of disciplines including narrative and cultural studies science religion and politics This volume draws on global cutting edge research and theory to investigate the historically variable understandings of fictionality and allows readers to grasp the role of fictions in our understanding of the world This interdisciplinary approach provides a thorough introduction to the fundamental themes of Theoretical and Philosophical Perspectives on Fiction Fiction Fact and Science Social Effects and Uses of Fiction Fiction and Politics Fiction and Religion Questioning how fictions in fact shape mediate or distort our beliefs about the real world essays in this volume outline the state of theoretical debates from the perspectives of literary theory philosophy sociology religious studies history and the cognitive sciences It aims to take stock of the real or supposed effects that fiction has on the world and to offer a wide reaching reflection on the implications of belief in fictions in the so called post truth era Teaching Postcolonial Environmental Literature and Media Cajetan Iheka, 2021-12-28 Provides strategies for teaching postcolonial environmental literature by writers from the Global South and indigenous peoples Topics and approaches include environmental justice queer ecofeminism animal studies migration anticolonialism petrofiction sea level rise environmental humanities and environmental justice organizations Works from Africa Latin America East Asia and the Caribbean are discussed The Chicago Manual of Style 18th edition 2025 Elliot Spencer, 2025-07-07 The Chicago Manual of Style CMOS is a classic sourcebook for authors editors and publishers spanning decades presenting authoritative guidance in English language use and publishing guidelines In September 2024 the University of Chicago Press released the 18th edition the biggest overhaul in twenty years This edition captures the evolving face of language and publishing addressing current issues and using feedback from an eclectic constituency of practitioners Are you overwhelmed by evolving grammar rules confused by citation updates or struggling to keep your writing inclusive and professionally polished In today's rapidly changing world of publishing language and digital content creation writers editors academics and communicators are facing new challenges every day From gender neutral pronouns to artificial intelligence and digital first publishing formats traditional rules are shifting fast and outdated style guides no longer meet modern demands The Chicago Manual of Style 18th Edition 2025 is the authoritative cutting edge solution for anyone who works with the written word This landmark release completely overhauled for the first time in over two decades responds directly to the pressing needs of today's writers and editors Whether you're an author academic student journalist or publishing professional this edition equips you with the essential tools to write clearly cite accurately and edit with precision and purpose What's New and Why It Matters This edition introduces critical updates that reflect a more inclusive digital and globally connected writing landscape For the first time the singular they is fully endorsed in formal writing offering

The Anthropocene and the Undead Simon Bacon,2022-03-22 The Anthropocene and the Undead describes how our experience of an increasingly erratic environment and the idea of the undead are more closely linked than the obvious zombie horde signaling the end of the world In fact as described here much of how we understand the anthropocene both conceptually and in practice involves undead entities from the past that will not die undead traumas that rise up and consume the world and undead temporalities that can never end Fifteen original essays by cultural and anthropological experts such as Kyle William Bishop Nils Bubandt Johan H glund and Steffen Hantke among others study the nature of humanity s ongoing complicated relationship to the environment via the concept of the undead In doing so The Anthropocene and the Undead sheds invaluable light on adjacent concepts such as the Capitalocene Necrocene Disanthropocene Post anthropocene and the Symbiocene to trace real and imagined trajectories of our more than human selves into undead and undying futures
