Vallely, 1999 Fintan Vallely's survey of Irish traditional music examines a wide range of topics relating to the history of the genre the characters past and present who engage with the music and an analysis of the way the media represents it

Irish folk music studies, 2001 The British Catalogue of Music, 2004 Books Ireland, 2001 Postcolonial Artist Jean Ryan Hakizimana, Micheal Ó'hAodha, 2009-10-02 The postcolonial experience as explored by the authors of this volume focuses on the complex set of cultural and ethnographic processes and strategies of resistance that are the diasporic or migrant Irish experience As a minority inhabiting the margins of society Irish Travellers frequently found themselves excluded to the periphery of those unitary constructions of Irishness that accompanied the early decades of Irish independence Straddling the Traveller Settled divide Johnny Doran whose career reached its zenith in the 1940s was one of the foremost Irish Traveller artists to have influenced the development of the Irish cultural and musical tradition As a primarily non literate group Irish Travellers have in the postcolonial era at least had very little input into the way in which they have been constructed or represented in the Irish cultural imaginary This book is a small attempt to redress this imbalance In exploring the Traveller historical experience through the musical oeuvre of one man it outlines the importance of human agency cultural hybridity and cross cultural borrowing and appropriation within the context of the shifting power relations and images that defined postcolonial Ireland Migrants and Memory Micheal O'Haotha, 2009-10-02 This volume hopes to act as a new marker in the areas of Irish Studies and Migration Diaspora Studies It is also in part an attempt to give a voice to communities who have frequently found themselves on the margins of the so called mainstream community the hidden Irish the hidden European the migrant the nomad that reflects the changing face of the new and immigrant Europe The scholars and activists writing here have engaged with the questions of ethnicity identity racism cultural expression and the new historiography that characterises those newer disciplines often referred to now as Traveller Studies and Romani Studies Of particular concern to this book s contributors has been the necessity to address these broader issues within the context of the ever changing dynamics of representation modernisation globalisation and the construction of the modern nation state that has been the litmus test for many Western and Eastern European countries including Britain and more recently Ireland It is to be hoped that this collection of essays will function as a catalyst for some new and exciting areas of enquiry in the more liminal interstices of Irish Studies Traveller Studies Romani Studies and Diaspora and Migration Studies the latter a discipline which modern Irish society is only now beginning to interrogate on a more serious and scholarly level
