Blatchford,2013-10-01 This book has a simple intent In September 2014 primary schools in England will be expected to adopt a new National Curriculum There is good time to prepare and this book shows you how At this point of curriculum change and evolution in England s primary schools a number of contributors have offered their reflections on how primary schools across the country might take forward and shape their own curriculum framework for pupils The spirit of the book is based on considerable leadership experience in schools letting a thousand flowers bloom rather than recommending a one size fits all approach The authors reflections come from varying perspectives teachers headteachers directors of foundations and leading thinkers on education each of whom is involved in the work of the National Education Trust www.nationaleducationtrust.net an independent charitable foundation which champions best practice Contributors include Kate Atkins Roy Blatchford Tim Coulson Kate Dethridge Professor Deborah Eyre Kate Frod Dr Neil Hawkes Richard Howard Peter Hyman Pamela Matty Chris Nourse Katy Peters Laurence Pitt Will Power Jane Ratcliffe Dave Smith Rob Stokoe Kathy Wood Chris Yapp The contributors are people who understand the realities of primary education yet retain that spark of imagination and creativity about what might be possible The book will provide that most important of opportunities to share good practice and debate with others I ve no doubt that minds and opinions will be changed by these contributions Estelle Morris former Secretary of State for Education and Skills Arts and Humanities Academics in Schools Geoff Baker,Andrew

Fisher,2011-03-10 In recent years interest in schools outreach and academic enrichment has increased dramatically reflecting a greater social conscience and awareness of the impact that universities can have on the wider community The transferable skills that academics bring to schools need to be honed for this new learning environment as delivery methods and success benchmarks are radically different in a schools context This collection addresses the numerous issues raised when arts and humanities academics become involved with schools bringing together practitioners from a broad range of fields within the arts and humanities to share experiences and insights Placemaking Sandbox Iderlina

Mateo-Babiano,Kelum Palipane,2020-06-19 Placemaking Sandbox offers a valuable collection of placemaking case studies designed for teachers and students to build expertise in shaping and creating thriving public places Each chapter outlines the latest research and practice underpinning placemaking pedagogical approaches with specialist authors developing and interrogating methodological techniques and reflecting on current teaching and research By taking a hands on and experimental look at emergent practices pedagogies and methods in placemaking across different contexts this book will help deepen understandings on how to wrestle with complex conditions generated by place In Placemaking Sandbox contributors skillfully tackle a little researched topic on the pedagogy of place and placemaking and in the process offer a distinctive bridge between academia and practice

Outstanding Teaching Andy Griffith, Mark Burns, 2014-10-30 In an era when schools and teachers often seem to operate at one hundred miles an hour Teaching Backwards offers a more reflective and measured approach to teaching and learning Where many teachers focus on delivering content in a linear fashion those who teach backwards start with the end in mind This means that they know in advance what levels of knowledge attitude skills and habits they expect their learners to achieve they define and demystify ambitious goals and they establish their students starting points before they start to plan and teach Teaching Backwards ensures that learners consistently make great progress over time and offers a practical hands on manual for teachers to further develop their attitudes skills and habits of excellence both for themselves and for their learners This book is the follow up to the best selling Outstanding Teaching Engaging Learners It is based on the analysis of thousands of hours of primary and secondary lessons part of Osiris Education s Outstanding Teaching Intervention programme over the last seven years
