|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|
| I would be interested in educational classes on disaster preparedness that relate specifically to my community situation.                                                                  | -0.154       | 0.106        | 0.211        | 0.097        | 0.654 |
| I know the limits of my knowledge, skills, and authority as an NP to act in disaster situations.                                                                                           | -0.042       | 0.022        | 0.058        | 0.014        | 0.797 |
| I am aware of potential vulnerabilities in my community (e.g. earthquake, floods, terror).                                                                                                 | 0.212        | 0.05         | 0.049        | 0.013        | 0.666 |
| I find that the research literature on disaster preparedness is understandable.                                                                                                            | 0.219        | 0.103        | 0.514 | 0.106        | 0.446        |
| I have a list of contacts in the medical or health community in which I practice. I know referral contacts in case of a disaster situation (eg. health department).                        | 0.135        | 0.186        | 0.648 | 0.141        | 0.176        |
| I read journal articles related to disaster preparedness.                                                                                                                                  | 0.188        | 0.212        | 0.651 | 0.176        | 0.214        |
| I know where to find relevant research or information related to disaster preparedness and management to fill in gaps in my knowledge.                                                     | 0.264        | 0.183        | 0.717 | 0.11         | 0.09         |
| I find that the research literature on disaster preparedness and management is easily accessible.                                                                                          | 0.345        | 0.116        | 0.66  | 0.107        | 0.118        |
| In case of a disaster situation, I think that there is sufficient support from local officials on the county or state level.                                                               | 0.045        | 0.127        | 0.652 | 0.152        | 0.153        |
| I am familiar with the local emergency response system for disasters.                                                                                                                      | 0.459        | 0.233        | 0.55         | 0.223        | 0.068        |
| Finding relevant information about disaster preparedness related to my community needs is an obstacle to my level of preparedness.                                                         | 0.117        | -0.053       | 0.143        | 0.171        | 0.438        |
| I know who to contact (chain of command) in disaster situations in my community.                                                                                                           | 0.413        | 0.17         | 0.549 | 0.199        | 0.005        |
| I am aware of classes about disaster preparedness and management that are offered in my workplace, the university, or community.                                                           | 0.272        | 0.301        | 0.598 | 0.207        | 0.008        |
| I participate in one of the following educational activities on a regular basis: continuing education classes, seminars, or conferences dealing with disaster preparedness.                | 0.509        | 0.251        | 0.513        | 0.101        | 0.04         |
| I have participated in emergency planning for disaster situations in my community.                                                                                                         | 0.73  | 0.275        | 0.271        | 0.052        | 0.087        |
| I participate/have participated in creating new guidelines or emergency plans or in lobbying for improvements on the local or national level.                                              | 0.749 | 0.283        | 0.256        | 0.039        | 0.074        |
| In case of a bioterrorism/biological attack, I know how to use personal protective equipment.                                                                                              | 0.51  | 0.228        | 0.337        | 0.368        | 0.013        |
| I am familiar with accepted triage principles used in disaster situations.                                                                                                                 | 0.075        | 0.109        | 0.216        | 0.685 | 0.062        |
| In a case of bioterrorism/biological attack, I know how to perform isolation procedures so that I minimize the risks for community exposure.                                               | 0.418        | 0.214        | 0.348        | 0.534 | -0.04        |
| I participate in disaster drills or exercises at my workplace (eg. clinic, hospital) on a regular basis.                                                                                   | 0.327        | 0.221        | 0.469        | 0.324        | -0.002       |
| In case of a bioterrorism/biological attack, I know how to execute decontamination procedures.                                                                                             | 0.68  | 0.281        | 0.341        | 0.234        | 0.055        |
| I consider myself prepared for the management of disasters.                                                                                                                                | 0.598 | 0.268        | 0.334        | 0.394        | 0.032        |
| I would be considered a leadership figure in my community in a disaster situation.                                                                                                         | 0.746 | 0.313        | 0.165        | 0.189        | 0.09         |
| I have personal/family emergency plans in place for disaster situations.                                                                                                                   | 0.641 | 0.229        | 0.262        | 0.412        | 0.045        |
| I have an agreement with loved ones and family members on how to execute our personal/family emergency plans.                                                                              | 0.557        | 0.182        | 0.207        | 0.534        | 0.07         |
| I am familiar with psychological interventions, behavioral therapy, cognitive strategies, support groups and incident debriefing for patients who experience emotional or physical trauma. | 0.609 | 0.364        | 0.267        | 0.346        | 0.097        |
| I am able to describe my role in the response phase of a disaster in the context of my workplace, the general public, media, and personal contacts.                                        | 0.53  | 0.362        | 0.317        | 0.447        | 0.104        |
| Some research has shown that NPs feel constrained by medical malpractice concerns or license restrictions in terms of responding to disasters. This constraint applies to me too.          | 0.3          | 0.159        | 0.049        | 0.504 | 0.213        |
| I am familiar with the organizational logistics and roles among local, state, and federal agencies in disaster response situations.                                                        | 0.672 | 0.388        | 0.303        | 0.199        | 0.059        |
| I would feel reasonably confident providing patient education on stress and abnormal functioning related to trauma.                                                                        | 0.419        | 0.5   | 0.227        | 0.387        | 0.06         |
| I can manage the common symptoms and reactions of disaster survivors that are of an affective, behavioral, cognitive, or physical nature.                                                  | 0.503        | 0.474        | 0.243        | 0.401        | 0.078        |
| I feel reasonably confident I can treat patients independently without supervision of a physician in a disaster situation.                                                                 | 0.36         | 0.352        | 0.126        | 0.593 | 0.111        |
| I can identify possible indicators of mass exposure evidenced by a clustering of patients with similar symptoms.                                                                           | 0.322        | 0.429        | 0.228        | 0.594 | 0.119        |
| I would feel confident working as a triage NP and setting up temporary clinics in disaster situations.                                                                                     | 0.256        | 0.437        | 0.16         | 0.618 | 0.173        |
| As an NP, I would feel confident as a manager or coordinator of a shelter.                                                                                                                 | 0.211        | 0.549        | 0.172        | 0.571        | 0.071        |
| As an NP, I would feel confident in my abilities as a direct care provider and first responder in disaster situations.                                                                     | 0.028        | 0.572        | 0.201        | 0.589        | 0.089        |
| I would feel confident implementing emergency plans, evacuation procedures, and similar functions.                                                                                         | 0.022        | 0.58         | 0.211        | 0.624        | 0.071        |
| As an NP, I would feel reasonably confident in my abilities to be a member of a decontamination team.                                                                                      | 0.057        | 0.617        | 0.19         | 0.482        | 0.034        |
| I feel reasonably confident discerning deviations in health assessments indicating potential exposure to biological agents.                                                                | 0.253        | 0.648 | 0.201        | 0.353        | 0.067        |
| I am familiar with the main groups (A, B, C) of biological weapons (eg. anthrax, plague, botulism, smallpox), their signs and symptoms, and effective treatment.                           | 0.456        | 0.673        | 0.145        | 0.132        | 0.07         |
| In a bioterrorism/biological attack, I would know how to perform a focused health history and assessment specific to bioagents that are used.                                              | 0.512        | 0.681        | 0.177        | 0.133        | 0.038        |
| I am familiar with what the scope of my role would be in a postdisaster situation.                                                                                                         | 0.129        | 0.717 | 0.262        | 0.234        | 0.038        |
| I am able to discern signs and symptoms of acute stress disorder and post-traumatic stress disorders (PTSD).                                                                               | 0.427        | 0.723 | 0.194        | 0.161        | 0.045        |
| I am comfortable providing education on coping skills and training for patients who experience traumatic situations.                                                                       | 0.398        | 0.717 | 0.19         | 0.235        | 0.044        |
| I am comfortable managing (treating, evaluating) emotional outcomes for acute stress disorder or PTSD.                                                                                     | 0.36         | 0.713 | 0.189        | 0.255        | 0.02         |
| I am familiar with how to perform focused health assessment for PTSD.                                                                                                                      | 0.42         | 0.72  | 0.238        | 0.211        | 0.001        |
| I participate in peer evaluation of skills in disaster preparedness and response.                                                                                                          | 0.463        | 0.63         | 0.296        | 0.106        | -0.014       |
