The Cairo House A Novel Arab American Writing:

The Cairo House Samia Serageldin, 2003-07-01 Samia Serageldin's heroine the daughter of a politically prominent land owning Egyptian family witnesses the changes sweeping her homeland Looking back to the glamorous Egypt of the pashas and King Faruk Serageldin moves forward to the police state of the colonels who seized power in 1952 and the disastrous consequences of Nasser's sequestration policies Through well chosen portraits and telling descriptions of the era's fashions and furnishings Serageldin conveys detailed social and cultural information She offers a glimpse of the beach at Agami in the 1960s and conveys the change in mood through the Sadat years Serageldin's fictional treatment of recent Egyptian history includes key events leading to the rise of Islamic fundamentalism such as the assassination of writer Yussef Siba yi and the harassment of theologian Nasr Abu Zayd Serageldin's heroine goes into exile in Europe and the United States but returns to Egypt in an attempt to reconcile her past and present Charting fresh territory for the American reader this semi autobiographical novel is one of the most sensitive and accessible documents of historical change in Egyptian life The book will appeal to a general audience and will be particularly useful to students interested in the social customs of the upper class in Egypt in the Nasser and Sadat years A novel of a child growing up in Egypt abroad within the framework of an affluent family who was proscribed under Nasser but who survived

Letters from Cairo Pauline Kaldas, 2007-04-12 When her husband is offered a six month Fulbright grant to teach American literature at Cairo University Pauline Kaldas embarks on a new journey and an opportunity to return home Born in Egypt she immigrated with her parents to the United States when she was eight years old Returning now with her own children Kaldas writes from a perspective as an Arab American straddling two homelands and two identities Through a collection of letters journal entries essays and even local recipes she provides a richly detailed portrait of life in Cairo recording daily revelations and eventually reconciling past and present With keen observation and deeply personal reflections the author presents a thoughtful meditation on the meaning of place family and origin Kaldas offers insight into the complexities of Egyptian culture alternately taking on roles of linguist and cultural interpreter and addressing everything from class issues and political activism to education and the impact of Western culture But it is her moving often entertaining letters and her children's emails and poems that will charm readers and resonate with devotees of travel narratives and multicultural literature This book captures the images character and passion of an extraordinary country Marked by spare graceful prose drawing on observations and friendships past and present Kaldas offers a unique lens for observing Middle Eastern societies one that the reader will not soon forget

Race and Arab Americans Before and After 9/11 Amaney Jamal, Nadine Naber, 2008-02-27 Bringing the rich terrain of Arab American histories to bear on conceptualizations of race in the United States this groundbreaking volume fills a critical gap in the field of U S racial and ethnic studies The articles collected here highlight emergent discourses on the distinct ways that race matters to the study of Arab American histories and experiences and asks essential questions What is the relationship between U S imperialism in Arab homelands and anti Arab racism in the United States In what ways have the axes of nation religion class and gender intersected with Arab American racial formations What is the significance of whiteness studies to Arab American studies Transcending multiculturalist discourses that have simply added on the category Arab American to the landscape of U S racial and ethnic studies after the attacks of September 11 2001 this volume locates September 11 as a turning point rather than as a beginning in Arab Americans

Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English

Nouri Gana, 2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf

Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey, 2014 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments

Modern Arab American Fiction Steven Salaita, 2011-04-13 Within the spectrum of American literary traditions Arab American literature is relatively new Writing produced by Americans of Arab origin is mainly a product of the twentieth century and only started to flourish in the past thirty years While this young but thriving literature varies widely in content and style it emerges from a common community and within a specific historical political and cultural context In Modern Arab American Fiction Salaita maps out the landscape of this genre as he details rather than defines the last century of Arab American fiction Exploring the works of such best selling authors as Rabih Alameddine Mohja Kahf Laila Halaby Diana Abu Jaber Alicia Erian and Randa Jarrar Salaita highlights the development of each author s writing and how each has influenced Arab American fiction He examines common themes including the Israel Palestine conflict the Lebanese Civil War of 1975 90 the representation and practice of

Islam in the United States social issues such as gender and national identity in Arab cultures and the various identities that come with being Arab American Combining the accessibility of a primer with in depth critical analysis Modern Arab American Fiction is suitable for a broad audience those unfamiliar with the subject area as well as scholars of the literature
