A Guide to Teaching, Parenting and Creating Family Friendly Schools Emma Sheppard, 2022-12-30 At The MTPT Project we know that teaching can be a sustainable career choice for parents and in this essential handbook we show you how Supported by case studies celebrating the best that the family friendly schools and happy teachers in our community have to offer this book is a lifeline for both educators aspiring to combine their passion for teaching with becoming a parent and the school leader who wants to empower them. However, you become a parent or choose to grow your family and your career, this handbook will provide you with the guidance and cheerleading that you need to fulfil your personal and professional aspirations. The book is divided into nine chapters guiding readers from the first considerations of family planning all the way through to the reality that some teachers and leaders may choose to leave classrooms for good. Each chapter includes the latest research on working families, legalities associated with different stages of working parenthood including discrimination and how to avoid it as an employer and address it as an employee, case studies from our community, suggestions for individuals and schools, recommended further reading. Each chapter will help you to navigate the journey from planning a family to stepping in and out of teaching to suit your parenting needs to creating family friendly working environments whatever your role in school. With its mixture of research informed solutions, hints and tips, this text is perfect for colleagues embarking on their parenting journey and school leaders who want to take practical steps to retain and empower valued colleagues.

Hearing on the Child Abuse Prevention, Adoption, and Family Services Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Select Education, 1992. This document presents testimony from a congressional hearing examining the Child Abuse Prevention Adoption and Family Services Act. In response to the General Accounting Office's (GAO's) concerns about the ability of the National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect (NCCAN) to perform its leadership role in identifying, preventing, and treating child abuse and neglect, this hearing was called to determine the progress made by NCCAN in the 9 months since the GAO concerns were raised and to make a recommendation on the length of the reauthorization for NCCAN. Testimonies focus on the NCCAN role, the role of the U.S. Advisory Board on Child Abuse and Neglect, expansion of child abuse adoption and family services programs, and child abuse fatalities. Opening statements are included from Representatives Major R. Owens and Donald M. Payne. A statement from Lesley Wimberly, president, National Association of State Vocational Organizations, is presented by Representative William F. Goodling. Witnesses providing testimonies include: 1. Wade Horn, commissioner, Administration for Children, Youth, and Families, Department of Health and Human Services; 2. Joseph Delfico, director, Income Security Issues, GAO; 3. Howard Davidson, U.S. Advisory Board on Child Abuse and Neglect; 4. Tom Birch, Legislative Counsel, National Child Abuse Coalition; 5. Michael Durfee, Child Abuse Prevention Unit, Department of Health Services, Los Angeles, California; 6. Mary Margaret Oliver, State Representative, Georgia State Legislature; and 7. Susan Wells, director, Child Maltreatment Fatalities Project, American Bar Association's Center on Children and the Law, Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Prepared statements, letters, and supplemental materials are included. NB
