Making is Connecting David Gauntlett, 2013-04-29 In Making is Connecting David Gauntlett argues that through making things people engage with the world and create connections with each other Both online and offline we see that people want to make their mark on the world and to make connections During the previous century the production of culture became dominated by professional elite producers But today a vast array of people are making and sharing their own ideas videos and other creative material online as well as engaging in real world crafts art projects and hands on experiences Gauntlett argues that we are seeing a shift from a sit back and be told culture to a making and doing culture People are rejecting traditional teaching and television and making their own learning and entertainment instead Drawing on evidence from psychology politics philosophy and economics he shows how this shift is necessary and essential for the happiness and survival of modern societies

Polemics and Provocations Paul Gilk,2010-06-01 In the twelfth century an Italian monk named Joachim caught the attention of the Christian West by announcing the Three Ages of the World Joachim arrived at his formulation by a meshing of the Christian Trinity with the Old and New Testaments proclaiming in sequence the Age of the Father the Age of the Son and the Age of the Holy Spirit In the early modern period however archaeologists uncovered the remains of an agrarian village social stratum that predates the rise of civilization The divinity of this period was the Mother Goddess a divinity that civilized monotheism with its strict Father God steadily and severely repressed Paul Gilk has modified Joachim s Three Ages revelation by placing this newly discovered Age of the Mother at the beginning of Joachim s sequence But it s obvious that Mother Father Son and Holy Spirit are not psychologically coherent or linguistically consistent The only way to make semantic sense of Joachim s enlarged formulation is to recognize the Age of the Holy Spirit as the Age of the Daughter for if there s a Mother a Father and a Son then the Holy Spirit implicitly and quietly reveals Herself as Daughter With this understanding it s possible to discern the prophetic power and transformative cultural significance of both the contemporary women s movement and the feminine Earth sensibility of the growing ecological outrage Gilk goes on to assert that the radical servanthood and radical stewardship contained within Jesus kingdom of God proclamation is at least in part an attempt to spiritually reconnect with the agrarian village culture of the Mother s Age but it s also a lifting of that Age to a finer spirituality and toward an ethically Green political order The kingdom of God is Green Gilk says and its overarching divinity is the Daughter The Age of the Daughter is Green and is struggling to be born

Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell,2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U S missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 as Christ's disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally American Pilgrimage Christopher Shannon, 2022-08-09 Histories of the Catholic Church in the United States abound Most suffer from an excess of either scholarly detachment or popular triumphalism American Pilgrimage seeks instead to draw on the best of current scholarship to tell the story of the Church as it understands itself the Body of Christ divinely ordained yet marred by sin charged with the mission of spreading the Gospel and building up the community of the faithful In scope American Pilgrimage narrates the story of the Church from the dramatic efforts at evangelization in the colonial period to the Catholic urban villages of the immigrant Church to the struggles to reimagine tradition in the late 20th century In shape it follows this story through the Augustinian contours of the ongoing struggle between the City of God and the City of Man a struggle that takes place between the Church and the world within the Church itself and within the soul of every Christian Critical Pedagogy, Ecoliteracy, & Planetary Crisis Richard V. Kahn, 2010 We live in a time of unprecedented planetary ecocrisis one that poses the serious and ongoing threat of mass extinction Drawing upon a range of theoretical influences this book offers the foundations of a philosophy of ecopedagogy for the global north In so doing it poses challenges to today's dominant ecoliteracy paradigms and programs such as education for sustainable development while theorizing the needed reconstruction of critical pedagogy itself in light of our presently disastrous ecological conditions
