The Cinemas of Italian Migration Sabine Schrader, Daniel Winkler, 2014-10-17 Italy is more strongly influenced by the experiences of migrants than many other European countries This includes an historically ongoing internal migration from the south to the north which is strongly echoed in neo realism a mass emigration mainly to western Europe and North and South America that is connected with mafia films among others in Italy s collective imaginary as well as a more recent immigration influx from the southwestern Mediterranean which is dealt with at a film level Reimagining the Italian South Goffredo Polizzi, 2022-03-25 Images of southern Italy as a place of arrival for migrants with different origins and backgrounds have in recent years proliferated in Italian media as well as in contemporary Italian literature and cinema The unprecedented perspective which presents the mezzogiorno as a place where people arrive and not only as a place of departure constitutes a major change in the collective imaginary on the region and fosters new engagements with its migratory histories This book presents one of the first studies to focus entirely through in depth readings of a range of contemporary literary and cinematic texts on the representation of contemporary migration to southern Italy and on the concomitant changes in the tradition of representation of the region Informed by translation theory and by decolonial queer and feminist critique this innovative study zeroes in on the mutual construction of race gender and sexuality and on the translation and hybridization of languages and cultures at the southern border By giving a rich and compelling account of texts which tell multiple stories of mobility from to and through the South this book traces the emergence of a transnational imaginary of the mezzogiorno which offers useful tools for an urgent reconfiguration of collective and individual identities Polish Migrants in European Film 1918-2017 Kris Van Heuckelom, 2019-04-23 This study explores the representation of international migration on screen and how it has gained prominence and salience in European filmmaking over the past 100 years Using Polish migration as a key example due to its long standing cultural resonance across the continent this book moves beyond a director oriented approach and beyond the dominant focus on postcolonial migrant cinemas It succeeds in being both transnational and longitudinal by including a diverse corpus of more than 150 films from some twenty different countries of which Roman Pola ski s The Tenant Jean Luc Godard s Passion and Krzysztof Kie lowski s Trois couleurs Blanc are the best known examples Engaging with contemporary debates on modernisation and Europeanisation the author proposes the notion of close Otherness to delineate the liminal position of fictional characters with a Polish background Polish Migrants in European Film 1918-2017 takes the reader through a widerange of genres from interwar musicals to Cold War defection films from communist era exile right up to the contemporary moment It is suitable for scholars interested in European or Slavic studies as well as anyone who is interested in topics such as identity construction ethnic representation East West cultural exchanges and transnationalism Women and Migration in Contemporary Italian Cinema Giovanna Faleschini Lerner, 2022-10-15 Women and Migration in Contemporary Italian Cinema Screening Hospitality puts gender at the centre of cinematic representations of contemporary transnational Italian identities It offers an intersectional feminist analysis of the ways in which transnational migration has been represented understood and constructed in the contemporary cinema of Italy Drawing on Jacques Derrida s notion of hospitality and in dialogue with postcolonial and decolonial theory queer studies and feminist critiques the six chapters of the book focus on a series of exemplary fiction films from the last twenty years which both reflect and shape the nation s responses to the growing presence of transnational migrants in Italian society The book shows how questions of gender sexual difference and reproductivity have been central to Italian filmmakers approaches to stories of mobility and displacement Gender is also enmeshed in the rhetoric and poetic of hospitality that filmmakers propose as a critical framework to condemn Italian border policies and politics Women and Migration in Contemporary Italian Cinema Screening Hospitality traces an arc that moves from the embrace of a humanitarian rhetoric of infinite hospitality toward migrants apparent in films produced in the early 2000s to a more fluid understanding of Italian identities from a transnational perspective

Narratives of Mediterranean Spaces Silvia Caserta,2022-10-31 Narratives of Mediterranean Space Literature and Art across Land and Sea presents a comparative analysis of contemporary literary and visual narratives of movement and migration produced in Italian Arabic and French It analyzes how these works create a dialogue across the Mediterranean Sea By paying attention to the multiple ways in which the Mediterranean is being narrated by contemporary writers and artists Silvia Caserta aims to propose a reconceptualization of the Mediterranean as a polyphonic space of movement and resistance The Mediterranean space that emerges from this study is a space that by virtue of the instability and porosity of its geographical and cultural borders is able to overcome normative dichotomies between north and south east and west local and global This book proposes the Mediterranean is a fruitful area from which to investigate the wider contradictions of the contemporary global world while avoiding the traps of Mediterraneanism For this reason the book highlights the contradictions and dissonances that emerge from reading Mediterranean works opening up multiple perspectives on the Sea and on the different lands that surround it

Migrant Anxieties Aine O'Healy,2019-01-24 During a period of heightened global concerns about the movement of immigrants and refugees across borders Migrant Anxieties explores how filmmakers in Italy have probed the tensions accompanying the country s shift from an emigrant nation to a destination point for over five million immigrants over the course of three decades ine O Healy traces a phenomenology of anxiety that is not only present at the sociopolitical level but also interwoven into the narrative strategies of over 30 films produced since 1990 throwing into sharp relief the interface between the local and the global in this transnational era Starting with the representation of post communist migrations to Italy from Eastern Europe and subsequent arrivals from Africa through the controversial frontier of Lampedusa O Healy explores topics as diverse as the configuration of migrant labor affective surrogacy Italian whiteness and the legacy of Italy s colonial history Showing how contemporary filmmaking practices in Italy are linked to changes in the broader media landscape O Healy analyzes the ways in which both Italian and migrant filmmakers are reimagining Italian society and remapping the nation's borderscape

Mobility and Migration in Film and Moving Image Art Nilgun Bayraktar, 2015-12-07 Mobility and Migration in Film and Moving Image Art explores cinematic and artistic representations of migration and mobility in Europe from the 1990s to today Drawing on theories of migrant and diasporic cinema moving image art and mobility studies Bayraktar provides historically situated close readings of films videos and cinematic installations that concern migratory networks and infrastructures across Europe the Middle East and Africa Probing the notion of Europe as a coherent entity and a borderless space this interdisciplinary study investigates the ways in which European ideals of mobility and fluidity are deeply enmeshed with forced migration illegalization and xenophobia With a specific focus on distinct forms of mobility such as labor migration postcolonial migration tourism and refugee mobilities Bayraktar studies the new counter hegemonic imaginations invoked by the work of filmmakers such as Ay e Polat Fatih Akin Michael Haneke and Tony Gatlif as well as video essays and installations of artists such as Kutlu Ataman Ursula Biemann Ergin avu o lu Maria Iorio and Rapha l Cuomo Challenging aesthetic as well as national cultural and political boundaries the works central to this book envision Europe as a diverse inclusive and unfixed continent that is reimagined from many elsewheres well beyond its borders Homo Viator

in Contemporary European Comedy Movies Artur Skweres, Adam Domalewski, 2025-09-21 Homo Viator in Contemporary European Comedy Movies explores the popular yet critically underexamined theme of travel and vacation in European comedic cinema while also engaging with urgent topics such as migration displacement and the refugee experience across various comic genres Despite the commercial success of these comedies produced after 1989 scholarly engagement with them has remained limited Authors Artur Skweres and Adam Domalewski aim to fill this gap by examining how humor becomes a powerful lens through which Europe laughs at negotiates and reimagines its borders Structured in two parts the book first focuses on the figure of the traveler homo viator and their pursuit of meaning transformation and comic adventure The second part turns to comedies centered on migrants and refugees revealing how comic genres can interrogate and even challenge dominant narratives of exclusion adaptation and mobility Unlike many traditional and contemporary media platforms that often adopt clear political stances and dismiss opposing perspectives the comedies discussed in this book offer a space where conflicting discourses can coexist highlighting comedy's unique ability to approach sensitive and contentious issues in a playful yet thought provoking manner This study shows that comedy provides a rich framework not only for exploring movement and migration related themes but also for addressing broader issues such as family dynamics spiritual growth economic struggle and shifting urban rural relationships A Companion to Italian Cinema Frank

Burke, 2017-04-17 Written by leading figures in the field A Companion to Italian Cinema re maps Italian cinema studies employing new perspectives on traditional issues and fresh theoretical approaches to the exciting history and field of Italian cinema Offers new approaches to Italian cinema whose importance in the post war period was unrivalled Presents a theory based approach to historical and archival material Includes work by both established and more recent scholars with new takes on traditional critical issues and new theoretical approaches to the exciting history and field of Italian cinema Covers recent issues such as feminism stardom queer cinema immigration and postcolonialism self reflexivity and postmodernism popular genre cinema and digitalization A comprehensive collection of essays addressing the prominent films directors and cinematic forms of Italian cinema which will become a standard resource for academic and non academic purposes alike

Dissonant Heritages and Memories in Contemporary Europe Tuuli Lähdesmäki,Luisa Passerini,Sigrid

Kaasik-Krogerus,Iris van Huis,2019-08-13 This open access book discusses political economic social and humanitarian challenges that influence both how people deal with their past and how they build their identities in contemporary Europe Ongoing debates on migration on local national inter and transnational levels prove that it is a divisive issue with regards to understanding European integration and identity At the same time the European Union increasingly invests in projects related to European heritage museums and cultural memory networks while having to take dissonant heritages into account These processes in their combination offer an interesting dynamic and form the complex puzzle that poses challenging questions for anyone involved in academic research heritage practices and policy debates With this puzzle at its core this book explicitly focuses on slippery and transforming notions of Europe and critically discusses ongoing and transforming power structures of heritage and memory in today s Europe The book combines theoretical and methodological contributions to the debates on European heritage and memory studies and in depth analyses of empirical case studies Its main aim is to bring research fields concerning memory and heritage into a closer dialogue and thus explore the cultural and political dynamics of contemporary Europe
