The City Without A Church

Brandon J. O'Brien

The City Without A Church:

The City Without a Church Henry Drummond, 1893 The City Without a Church Henry Drummond, 2013-02-18 Two very startling things arrest us in John's vision of the future. The first is that the likeliest thing to Heaven he could think of was a City; the second that there was no Church in that City. Almost nothing more revolutionary could be said even to the modern world in the name of religion. No Church that is the defiance of religion; a City that is the antipodes of Heaven. Yet John combines these contradictions in one daring image and holds up to the world the picture of a City without a Church as his ideal of the heavenly life.
